"Hoop" Intramurals Over

Sports Editor

Super Fly Inc. took advantage of mental mistakes made by the Texas Taters and came up with a 44 to 41 victory for the Intramural League Championship. Super Fly had the lead with 5:58 minutes remaining in the game and tried to run out the clock with a stall. The stall was effective for two and a half minutes until Robb Johnson was fouled. He made the first but missed the second for a 40-37 lead. The Taters fought right back and Rick Kline converted from the top of the key and the Taters were within one point of a victory. Super Fly, however, wasn't about to roll over and play dead. Again they put on the stall but the ball was stolen by Elmer Stevens who drove the length of the court and put the Taters in the lead 41-40. The tide was turned and now Super Fly was behind. They brought the ball down court but were called for a three second violation. At this point it seemed that the Taters had it sewn up. After two stolen passes by Roger Nolan and two missed shots by Super Fly, the Taters again had possession of the ball with less than a minute left. Instead of freezing the ball the Taters made a mental error. They tried to take a shot. The shot was no good and Super Fly was given another chance.

Trying to get the ball in Big Robb Johnson drew a foul with 20 seconds remaining and Robb converted on both for a 42-41 Super Fly lead. Rick Kline tried a jumper with five seconds left but the shot rolled off the rim. Roger Nolan was fouled on the rebound and when he missed his free throw, Robb Johnson reached over everyone and tipped in the shot at the buzzer and sealed Super Fly's victory.

Both teams had made it to the championship with convincing eight point victories in the semifinal games. The Taters defeated W.D.S.A. 47 to 39 and Super Fly Inc. beat the Horny Dozen Minus Two, 60 to 52.

Right from the start of the game things did not go well for Super Fly Inc. Instead of having the customary jump ball the Texas Taters were at the foul line shooting a technical foul charged to Super Fly. It seemed as if the undefeated Taters were on their way to the title as they played flawless ball for the first few minutes. They jumped to a quick 6-0 lead and stymied Super Fly with their 2-1-2 zone defense. The double-teamed Super Fly's gigantic Robb Johnson who has convincingly been the team's outstanding player throughout the regular season, and seemed to have the game under control.

Suddenly it seemed as if the roof fell in on them. They started playing erratically, throwing away passes and missing easy lay ups. While all this was going on, Super Fly finally ignited. Instead of being down by six, Super Fly, led by Robb Johnson, was in command and found themselves up by as many points as they were once behind. Johnson drove, tipped and jumped his way to four quick baskets combined with two from Bob Britton to give their team a 12-6 lead, which was the largest lead of the night.

Finally the Taters relaxed and started to come back. Although the play was considered sloppy, Super Fly's lead was starting to crumble. It took almost seven minutes of poor playing until the Taters re-ignited their offense. Rick Kline hit from the left corner to put the Taters within two, 15-

Brian Heenan stole a pass and hit from the key and knotched the game at 17. A fast break by Kline and a jumper from Watachien put the Taters up by four, 21-17, with only fifteen seconds before the half. Bob Britton drove in a layup for Super Fly and Elmer Stevens hit a shot at the buzzer for a 23-19 half time lead in favor of the Texas Taters.

The second half proved decisive for Super Fly as Bob Britton and Robb Johnson combined for 21 points. The game was a seesaw battle all the way up to the final buzzer as Super Fly survived for its close victory.

The statistics showed how close the game actually was. The lead had been exchanged a total of ten times and the game was stalemated seven times. Robb Johnson led all the scoring as he hit for 25 points. Bob Britton helped his teammate as he chipped in 13. Rick Kline led the losers with 19.

. According to Coach Ed Onorato, Case Western Reserve is a tough established team, and he said, "Our win was a surprise to everyone-me too! We looked really sharp and we showed a good extra effort."

Julio's pin started the match off with excitement, as usual the only thing now was to keep the momentum going.

Keith had a little trouble getting into the swing of things but a beautiful split scissors pin. Jeff came across in the first two periods with a near pin but slowed a little in the third period but still came out on top.

Hearing a score of 14-3 sounds like someone really got killed but in the 142 weight class it wasn't so. Mark Flint (C) was a smart mover and was quick for some fast points. Larry's three points were all escapes.

Brad wrestled with his usual efficiency and got a pin in 4 minutes, 20 seconds.

Mike was very aggressive but had a bit of a problem getting off the bottom and with an escape for both the score at the end of this match was a 1-1 tie.

Brian, having had some problems with a bad arm, came through also with the best offensive take down resulting in a pin after which a Cub victory was secure.

Al, Tom, and Ken had a bit of misfortune but Case-Western's top three men are their best.

The coach said the boys are beginning to perk up and look sharp which they haven't since Christmas. Possibly, the coach admitted, the coming pep rally helped, knowing it was coming and the home game Tuesday made them want to come home looking good.
