

Soccer Team Drops Game 3-2 To Underrated Gannon Jocks

by Jim Concelman Sports Writer

The game is over and all that's left is the crying. Unfortunately, the Behrend soccer team can ill afford to hang their heads for long after the 3-2 loss to Gannon last Saturday because they have only two days to prepare for the next game.

Very simply put, Gannon played better soccer than the Cubs. Possibly, Behrend underestimated the Gannon team who had four consecutive losses. Whatever the reasons, Behrend did not force Gannon to play "our type of soccer" as Coach Lauffer stated before the game.

Gannon opened the scoring with 15 minutes gone in the first half on a shot by Susan from about 12 yards. Another 15 minutes passed, and again it was Susan who scored from about the 12, and Gannon lead at half time 2-0.

Gannon made it 3-0 three minutes after the second half kick off on a shot by Napoleon. Behrend had not been idle all this time, however; the Cubs, at half time, had out shot the Knights 18-9, and at the end of the game, Behrend had 30 shots on the goal to Gannon's 16.

Behrend showed some of its come back ability with 18 minutes gone in the second half when John Hoge took a cross from Steve Motyka and rammed a head ball into the net.

Perhaps the only sunshine on an otherwise gloomy day came with 5 minutes left in the game. Denny Grace crossed the ball in front of the goal, and Sunny Gillet laid to rest the mad Dr. Candy Foot by scoring his first goal of the season.

It is very important that the team forget the score and remember what they learned to prepare for the next game with Alliance on Wednesday and Walsh College on Monday.

Next Saturday, the Cubs meet Malone at home and the team hopes to have as fine a turn out of fans as in previous games. Gannon may have the soccer match but Behrend had a far superior fan turn out. Behrend's soccer fans should be congratulated on their fine support and with their help, the Cubs should quickly re-capture their winning ways.

Let's Appreciate Those Other Guys

by Jim Concelman Sports Writer

Next time you're taking in a soccer game, shoot a glance at the Behrend sidelines. You will of course see Coach Lauffer, perhaps you will spy Coach Onorato and Dr. Sweeting but you will also see, and most assuredly hear, three people which the members of the team know well, but with whom the fans of Behrend's finest are not familiar.

Dave Aloiz is always easy to recognize because of a blue woolen hat that I sometimes think grows atop his head. Dave is the goalie coach. Although he has never played in the goal before, Dave is an ardent fan of the Spanish Inquisition. First, he puts the goalies through a warm up that would make Attila the Hun smile. Then, a conversation something like this occurs:

"Let's go goalies, the wall."

"No, please, anything but the wall."

"The wall," he smiles.

"Please, not the wall. You can hang us by our feet from the goal post and shoot penalty kicks at us but not the wall."

"The wall."

I'm sure you've all seen the wall. It sits by the practice field and is used for shooting drills. The wall is right up there on the top ten torture list in between the Rack and the Iron Maiden. I guess I shouldn't complain, I can say personally as a goalie that Dave has helped me tremendously and in general is a great addition to the team.

I hope you've all seen that short stocky guy with the Behrend Soccer T-shirt on. If you haven't seen him, you've heard him, and if you haven't heard him, then you haven't been to the games. I'm referring to Bob Skwaryk who has more spirit than 180 proof Jamacian Rum. Because of budgetary reasons, Bob cannot travel with the team. Yet he always seems to appear at the farthest away games. Bob has got a lot fire in him and he makes no qualms about transferring a few calories to the team. He never lets the team get sluggish or forget about the next game.

Let's face it, the trainer does not get a whole lot of publicity. I doubt that you'll ever read something like "and the winning goal was scored by Sunny Gillette whose ankle was ably taped by Duck Zimmerman", or "Goalie Mickey Brocius made a fabulous save, thanks to the towel washed by Duck Zimmerman that Brocius was able to wipe his hands on before he played." No, washing socks and jocks is not an amiable job but none the less, having Duck around does free Coach Lauffer for other important things.

No one forces these four people to give their time to the team, they do it because they want to. Coach Lauffer has stated time and again how important these people are to the team and I'm sure the whole team feels the same way.

Support Our Donut Sell!

A donut sale is being sponsored by Niagara Dorm Council every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 8 p.m. to midnight or until all the donuts are sold. An assortment of donuts are available in the Niagara lobby priced at fifteen cents apiece or two for a quarter. The money collected by the Council will be used to furnish the recreation room in the basement of the dorm.

Other projects, such as a concession stand at home soccer games and a costume Halloween Party are being planned. Everyone is urged to attend these activities and give their support to a worthy cause.

Homecoming Plans Final

Friday, November 2 and Saturday, November 3 are the dates scheduled for Homecoming Weekend at Behrend. The Festivities begin Friday evening at 7 p.m. at the Holiday Inn-South with a reception for the alumni and any students over twenty-one. Activities will continue Saturday morning with tours of the campus conducted by SGA officers. Also, a film of the twenty-five year history of Behrend will be shown in the RUB. A soccer match is planned for Saturday afternoon but an opponent has yet to be chosen.

The highlight of the weekend will be the semi-formal dance held in the RUB on Saturday night from nine until one. Culminating the evening's activities will be the crowning of the Homecoming king and queen. Names of two nominees from each class, chosen during a class meeting, will be submitted during the week before the dance. On Friday, November 2, a general election will be held to vote for a reigning couple. Tickets for the dance are $3.50 per couple.

Anyone who is interested in more details or has any questions should contact either Dean Betsy Seanor or Darla Berkey.

Learn to fly while you're still in college. The Marines will pay the bill—about $900 worth of lessons—for qualified members of the Platoon Leaders Class. You'll also be earning a Marine officer's commission through PLC summer training at Quantico, Virginia. And after graduation, you may be one of the few good men who go on to Marine pilot or flight officer training. Get the details from the Marine officer who visits your campus.
