Pop and Rock

by Tom Stanger

The Best of the Move" is an album which, in my opinion, is long overdue. Though The Move's American releases "Shazam!" and "Message From the Country" received widespread critical acclaim, they didn't sell very well. Because of this lack of popularity, most record stores have removed them from their shelves, and these discs have literally become collector's items. This situation is nothing short of appalling. How trash music like that of Grand Funk and John Denver continues to sell while stuff as good as The Move's falls by the wayside is a question only Madison Avenue can answer. They have since broken up to form Wizzard and the Electric Light Orchestra. The Move is extinct.

making long before any of the other signs. He is sensitive, but apt to get over rejection and romantic disappointments quite easily. Since he cannot say "no" without difficulty, he sometimes finds himself involved with an unsuitable person. When this happens, he may suffer in silence until he decides to say good-bye. As a marriage partner, the Libra woman is an excellent wife in the strictest sense of the word, and a Libra man, though difficult to please, are both gentle and loving.

If you have never heard The Move (I think any self-respecting music lover should), you may never have another chance. Their latest, "Best of the Move", is a collection of what I consider some of the best British rock music. There is material on the album which has never been released in the U.S., so if you are a real Move fan this one is irresistible.

Generally good looking, with dimples in his cheeks and maybe his chin—his facial expression is usually a pleasant one. (A Libra is the type of person who smiles at you even when he has been angered by you.)

Considering the relatively poor success of their earlier records as far as sales were concerned, I am not sure I understand A&M's release of this "Best of" album. "Best of's" are usually only released when a band has shown a great deal of public appeal and a financial profit of considerable size. Absurdly, The Move has done neither, so why the new disc? It is likely that The Move's past failures were the result of promotional bunglers and that the big-shots at A&M realize the still-existent sales potential of this great music. It's time that the public saw fit to give credit where it is due.

Ms. Volleyball

by Paul Corbran

How many students, here at Behrend, know what volleyball is really about? How many have ever seen an organized volleyball match? The majority of the students are probably left in the dark when asked about this very underrated sport. Well, the answer to these questions can be found at Erie Hall on Oct. 24 when the Behrend Women's Varsity Volleyball team opens its season with a triangular match with Gannon and Mercyhurst colleges.

The gals have been hard at work for over a month now and are looking forward to a successful season. Sporting an experienced starting team and very promising reserves, they are looking for a reversal of the losing season of last year.

Mrs. Wilson, the coach, plans to start with six returning members of last year's team. These six girls, all sophomores, are: Jill Heenan, Darlene Howell, Donna Dunbar, Pam Grimm, Jane Truskey and Ginger Brown. They are working on a 5-1 offense where five girls are focusing on spiking while the other singles the setting technique. "They've been working very hard this year and I'm looking for a very good season," stated Coach Wilson. "Also, I think we have the best reserve team that Behrend ever had." The reserves include freshmen Sue Mitchell, Patty Murphy, Marge Henderson, Barb Egglin, Linda Hall, Priscilla

Hamilton, Diane Shafer and Kathy Hoyt.

Thursday's event premieres a series of seven matches and a Commonwealth Tourney, which will be held on Nov. 9 at New Kensington. Included in the schedule are three new opponents; Grove City, Gannon, and Thiel colleges. Also, there are four home matches this season and, hopefully, the student body will come out in support of these girls.

Backing the athletic teams this year is a very enthusiastic and involved Booster Club. They not only supply spirit athletes need but they also provide some financial assistance. The club's first activity this year will be a Halloween Square Dance. The dance will be held at Erie Hall, on Tuesday, October 31 at 9 p.m. There will be a caller and records leading the group. Cider and donuts will be available. Square dancing is not just for "squares"—it's for those who are up for a good time! See you AT THE DANCE!

LIBRA—September 24 thru October 23

An individual born under the sign of Libra seeks balance in each of his undertakings. Sociable, friendly, accepting, he is a popular person, highly sought after as a mate or partner. He finds decision making difficult, and does not enjoy being involved in any type of conflict. But this is no way prevents him from becoming a professional soldier. He may also be found in the field of law, medicine, or entertainment. A Libra is not a stranger to the world of fine arts; he can be just as interested in ballet as he is in baseball, being both a patron of the arts and an avid sports fan.

Generally good looking, with dimples in his cheeks and maybe his chin—his facial expression is usually a pleasant one. (A Libra is the type of person who smiles at you even when he has been angered by you.)

Being of a romantic nature, he understands love and love-

What is it? It's a book drop. Use it—during off hours when the library is closed and avoid those hated library fines. Return those books on time. You can't miss it—it's pink and sits at the entrance to the Reed Building.
