

Pom-pom gals back...

Cheer into season

By Robin Buccilli
Collegian Staff Writer

Autumn usually seems to conjure up reminders of brisk weather and fall sports, and with this season's athletic events comes an additional attraction at Behrend - the cheerleading squad! The members of the squad for the fall term are: Chris Ritchie (captain, sophomore), Chris Koch (soph.), Kathy Evanoff (soph.), Sharon Modestine (fresh.), Jaye Etheridge (fresh.), Sue Loeffel (soph.), Lisa Sieber (fresh.).

Mrs. Laudersack, who acts as assistant advisor to the cheerleading squad, reported an average turnout of approximately 36 girls for the cheerleading tryouts this term. She admitted that it is indeed quite a task to choose only seven of the young women to wear the Behrend blue-and-white.

As Mrs. Laudersack says, "We had six qualified members of the Behrend staff participate in the judging this term. We looked for qualities of voice projection, coordination and rhythm, as well as a determination to do their best. A well-groomed appearance is also important. I like to see the cheerleaders take pride in their school, and have empathy with the team's effort. They are representatives of the school, and we want to have the best representatives possible - ones who show skill and spirit."

One of those involved in the judging procedure this term was Mr. Onorato, who serves as the Behrend wrestling coach as well as the main advisor for the cheerleaders. He expressed satisfaction with the job the cheerleaders are accomplishing, and feels that they play a vital role in the sports program.

Coach Onorato remarked, "The cheerleaders can make a very significant contribution to our overall sports performance. Having the proper environment in which to compete is very important to the athlete, and the cheerleaders add a greater dimension to the contest. Theoretically, their function is to link the audience with the athletic competition, and in this way they add to the overall package we are presenting. This provides interest for all, as well as good experience for the girls who participate. They have to travel, practice, and possess strong commitment to the team."

Preparation for LSAT test to take place in near future for benefit of the prelaw student

Dr. C. Redenius, Behrend College Prelaw advisor would like to announce a cram course for the LSAT (Law School Aptitude Test) offered by the AMS Educational Services Inc. The course will be 20 hours of in-class concentrated instruction.

Dates are September 26, 6 to 10 pm, and September 27 and 28. The location will be announced later.

Tuition is $60 to be paid to Mr. Gregor Reinhardt at Gammon College. Unless 25 students register, the course will not be offered and the money refunded. For further information, call G. Reinhardt at 456-7523.

Call for new strategy

Cubs heading toward new wins

By Mark Reese
Sports Editor

The 1975 Behrend Cubs soccer team made its debut in intercollegiate varsity play this Wednesday past in a contest on the field of Slippery Rock State College. The match resulted in a 3-0 decision against Behrend, but in light of the sort of team Slippery Rock fields, holding them to three goals was no mean accomplishment. Slippery Rock has been rated one of the strongest Pennsylvania soccer teams for the last three years. They are placed tenth in the tri-state area, among teams from such schools as Penn State, Philadelphia, and Bucknell. Our defense had to learn a lot and quickly, so even though the game was lost, we benefitted from the meeting.

Gary Zemanski in the outside left position looked good on offense, breaking through for three goal attempts in the first half, and another two in the second. Another hard charger in offense was John Fleming, who got three shots at their net from his left halfback position.

The strongest link in our defense was third year man Micky Brosius, tending the goal with 15 saves, allowing only three to escape past him.

The scores against us were a shot from the corner by their outside left, and two short shots from the middle, one by their inside right, and one by the outside right.

Then on Saturday the Cubs met Malone State on our wet and muddy field, and the result was a smashing 7-0 victory. The game was literally dominated by the Cubs from start to finish, offense and defense. Coach Herb Lauffer got a good chance to try out his bench, and proved that the team has good depth as well as good starters. Twenty-three players dressed for the game, and twenty-three got to play. The subs did a good job also, moving the ball well enough for seven goal attempts in the course of the game.

The first two goals were made for the Cubs by Mark Stillwagon from his center forward spot. The third score was the result of a penalty kick by John Fleming. Stillwagon then made two more goals, giving him four for the game, and tying a Behrend record. The sixth goal was booted by inside left Gary Lloyd. John Fleming, from left halfback, came in to score the seventh and final goal of the game. Mark Rudolf, and Gary Zemanski were hard at work for the Behrend offense, pushing in for 10 and 8 attempts respectively.

Coach Lauffer said of the game, "They couldn't stay with us, we moved the ball very well and executed our moves with skill. The pressure was somewhat less than in our previous game, and the team had a chance to really test themselves."

Coming up are a pair of tough teams, the first, this Saturday, will be with Roberts Wesleyan in Rochester, N.Y. Next Wednesday, the team will go against Gannon on their field at three o'clock.

Coffeehouse sounding up tomorrow

This Friday evening, the Behrend coffee house series will be featuring Gay Catania.

Gay is a Behrend student and has performed at the coffee house several times. She is a blues, and contemporary oriented vocalist and guitarist. Gay's repertoire consists of standards as well as contemporary folk and she also will be performing several original compositions.

Ms. Catania's background in the musical profession includes a lead vocalist position with a blues and jazz band that was reasonably well known in the Erie area last year.

Soccer

"Practice makes perfect" and so these two members of the Behrend Soccer Team are busy practicing to ensure the team of a winning season.
