

Broadly beaming, former Behrend student Gay Catania headlined last week's Coffeehouse.

Here he is, the man responsible for many of the photographs of this term's Collegian, Lynn Boone. Note: this is a self-portrait.

Pictured above is the distinguished Editor-in-chief of the Collegian, who will soon be stepping down and leaving his office to another Behrend prosepctive.

Amid a chrome and brass jungle, Red, White and Blueberry crank out some fantastic sounds during their concert last Friday in Erie Hall.

Carol Mantsch is shown in one of her rare moods during the course of a hectic day as Executive Secretary of the Collegian. The staff wishes to thank her for her super-human efforts.
