

What to tell your folks when you decide to change your major.

Dear Mom and Dad—
 No one was ever very successful at something he didn't believe in.
 I'm no different.
 For some time now, I've been plugging away at my major. My grades aren't bad. My teachers aren't bad. Everything's not bad. But for me, that's not good enough.
 So I'm changing. I'm starting from scratch in a field that does excite me. I believe in it. And I know deep down, I'll be better at it. And happier at it.
 I hope you're not disappointed in me. I rather hope you're proud of me. I believe in it. Let's talk about it when I get home.

When you believe in what you're doing, you just naturally do it better.
