

That's Entertainment.

COMING ATTRACTIONS by Nina Siegel

The last week in April has some exciting events in store for Behrendites. Thursday the 26th, Snoopy is visiting us with his definitely undoggie-like antics. "Snoopy Come Home," from the Animated Film Series, is showing in the RUB Lecture Hall at 4:00 and 10:00 p.m. The fee is 35 cents with an activity card and 75 cents without it.

Friday night's T.G.I.F. dance has been cancelled, so you will have to pick another hotspot to dance the night away.

Sunday, April 29, you're sure to enjoy the sun and be well-fed! From 4:00 to 6:00 a Chicken Bar-B-Que is happening down at the Wilson Picnic Grove. The price is right at $2.50 per person, and if you have a meal ticket, use it and the meal is free.

On May 1, the film of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" will be showing in the RUB Lecture Hall. It is brought here through the Division of Arts and Humanities. The cost is absolutely free.

Also, May 1, 2, and 3 offer free previews of Behrend Players "Vanities." Don't miss this exciting show and pass up an enthralling evening of live entertainment at the Studio Theatre. Show time is 8:00. One interesting note about this play is a different twist; there is a pre-show beginning at 7:30. The cast (three girls) do their exercises and make-up on stage.

Next Thursday afternoon, May 3, is the eleventh annual birthday celebration for the RUB. Cake and ice cream will be served in the RUB in front of the Nittany Lion outside the commuter cafeteria from noon to 1:30 p.m. Come and eat! It's free!

Spring Week Has Sprung!

This year Behrend has taken a different approach to the Spring festival. Instead of limiting it to an arts Festival we included a Fun Festival in this year's Spring Week '79. A Fun Festival includes activities for both the students of Behrend College and the community of Erie. It's time for Behrend to present recreational events for the community as well as the students to participate in. Have a good time and make the best of Behrend's Spring Week '79.

Dorms Battle Faculty

by Holly MacTaggart

Men against women, wits against nerve, students against faculty. That's the way it was on Monday, April 23 in the RUB Lecture Hall. Dean Lane officiated for the Behrend "Dorm Feud," and the faculty and staff won over the lot.

Someone got the idea to take the plot from "Family Feud," a television program which has very general questions with family against family. Dorm women were pitted against dorm men, the winners to take on the faculty.

In the first heat women struck a blow for women's lib as a group of students from Perry, Niagara, and Lawrence defeated the men from the dorms.

Alas, there was to be no student triumph over the faculty. Coed cleverness could not defeat the wit and experience of the faculty, who won in the final round of the feud.

The entertaining silliness amused both participants and the many others who attended the event.
