"Excellence in Teaching Award"

In 1969, the Penn State-Behrend Council of Fellows established an "Excellence in Teaching" award to annually recognize that faculty member who in the opinion of students and colleagues most truly fills the role of an inspired and committed instructor - and instructor whose teaching and working with students is characterized by excellence.

The recipient of the award, selected from among faculty members nominated by students, chartered student organizations, faculty, or staff, is recognized at Awards Convocation each Spring and receives a plaque and a check for $250 from the Council of Fellows.

Previous recipients of the "Excellence in Teaching" award include:

1970	Philip K. Jobst	Instructor in Philosophy
1971	Jeffrey C. Steinbrink	Instructor in English
1972	Edwin Masteller	Associate Professor Biology
1973	A. Daniel Frankforter	Assistant Professor of History
