Erie High School Ball

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL
The Dunbar Poets from Baltimore, Maryland, recently paid a visit to the Erie area. Dunbar is ranked among the best basketball teams in the country for the third consecutive year. If you are familiar with the Georgetown Hoyas, then you know they have two starters who were All-Americans in high school who played for Dunbar. They are David Windgate and Reggie Williams. While playing together they compiled a 60-0 high school slate. Wake Forest also had a Dunbar product in 5'3" point guard Tyrone Bouges who also played with Windgate and Williams. Dunbar was the HIGH SCHOOL NATIONAL CHAMPS for the second year in a row. This year Dunbar has another nationally ranked team with the likes of pre-season ALL-AMERICAN Michael Brown. The Poets are 21-2 on the season and are on a 19 game winning streak.

Next year the Poets will have Perry Dozier on hand who stands at 6'11". While in Erie, Dunbar blew out a team from the Pittsburgh area named Farrell. There were five slam dunks in the

Echols

Pastor James Echols will speak on Friday, February 10, 1984, in celebration of Black Cultures Week.

Pastor Echols' topic will be "Protest as a Significant Theme in the History of Black Religion."

Echols is from the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Reed Lecture Hall of Penn-State Behrend and will be followed by a question and answer period and a reception. The event is being sponsored by the Penn-State Behrend Campus Ministry.

Lady Cub News

by Mary Hickin

Behrend's Lady Cagers have been active since their return from Christmas break. They have played eight games, splitting the wins and losses evenly to bring their record to 8-6 overall. The Cubs have turned back Point Park, Grove City, Mercyhurst and Pitt-Bradford while failing victim to Allegheny, Thiel and twice to St. Vincent.

The win against Point Park came early in January. Missy Stasenko paced the Cubs with 17 points. Donna Morgan added 13 with Barb Schofield and Diane Metzgar each chipping in 10. The Cubs also beat Mercyhurst in their other road win, dealing the Lady Lakers an 85-65 set-back. Diane Metzgar was tops for the Cubs with 19 points, Mindy Stasenko zipping in 15. Missy Stasenko dropped in 12 and Pam Anderson adding 10.

The two home wins were impressive as the Lady Cubs handed Grove City a 64-52 reversal and Pitt-Bradford a 73-47 drubbing. Morgan had the hot hand in the Grove City game, popping for 20 points, Mindy Stasenko garnering 18 and twin Missy with 10. Mindy was tops again in the Pitt-Bradford game with 19, Metzgar and Schofield adding 14 apiece.

Coach Ellen Johns is generally pleased with the play of her charges. After the Grove City contest her only reply was a broad smile and, "Fantastic!" Her only concern is the team's offensive consistency. In the losses to St. Vincent and Allegheny she cited the lack-luster play of the offense, while the defense was better than average.

The Cubs' scoring leader, Mindy Stasenko, earned District 18 honors. Stasenko was selected as "Player of the Week." January 23 for her performance in the three previous games. She scored 54 points, shooting a hot 54 percent from the floor as she made 21 of 39 attempts. The 5'9" junior also pulled in 17 rebounds, dished out four assists, stole the ball six times and blocked four shots.

Stasenko leads the team in scoring with 171 points in 13 games for a 13.2 scoring average. Hot on her trail is Diane Metzgar with a 12 points-per-game average, scoring 168 points in 14 games. Missy Stasenko rounds out the top three with 146 points for a 10.4 average.

The Cubs next home game is versus Villa Maria College at 7 p.m. tonight. Admission is free.

affair and each with a different style to it. If you ever get a chance to go see the Dunbar Poets in action, I can assure you it will be well worth your time and money.
