Intramurals Change With Seasons

by Mark Yeager
Collegian Sports Writer

Footballs were turned in for soccer balls as intramurals headed into soccer season.

A record number of teams competed in football this year. On the 30 men's and 5 women's teams were 422 people. Higher House proved to be tops in the men's division by beating Push-The-Button 26-13 in the finals. The Miller Highlites took first for the women's division in an overtime game against The Knockers.

In intramural golf, Jim Pickett shot an 82 and an 85 for an 83.5 average that put him on top.

The cross-country race was canceled because of lack of participation, but those who were interested may compete in the Behrend 10-kilometer. This race is open to the public and will be held in the spring.

Intramural 'three-on-three' basketball will begin on Nov. 12 and entries are due by Nov. 9. Intramural Director Duane Crider said that there are fewer basketball players here than in past years and anyone has a chance to win the finals.

$20,000 Scholarships: A Valuable Scholarship. A Valuable Challenge.

The two-year NROTC Scholarship Program offers you a two-year college scholarship that's worth as much as $20,000 in tuition. And it offers you the challenge of becoming a Navy officer with early responsibilities and decision-making authority.

During college, the Navy pays tuition, cost of textbooks, instructional fees, and an allowance of $100 a month for up to 20 months during your last two years of college. Upon graduation and completion of requirements, you are commissioned a Navy officer.

Call your Navy representative for more information on this challenging program.
