

A Celebration of Afro-American Culture

DR. PEARL PRIMUS

AMIRI BARAKA

ALEX HALEY

Schedule of Events

For more information phone The Office of Student Affairs at (814) 898-6155.

MARCH 22, 1987

Dr. Pearl Primus:

The world's foremost authority on African dance will lecture on "Celebrating the African Legacy".

TIME: 6:30 p.m.

PLACE: Reed Bldg. 117

MARCH 23 - 27

"Roots": A Saga of History (the series).

MARCH 25, 1987

Amiri Baraka:

A controversial poet, playwright and political activist; also Chairperson of Congress of Afrikan People.

TIME: 7:00 p.m.

PLACE: Reed Bldg. 117

MARCH 28, 1987

Alex Haley:

Nationally known writer and lecturer whose 1977 work Roots became internationally acclaimed.

TIME: 7:30 p.m.

PLACE: Erie Hall

The Pennsylvania State University
The Behrend College - Erie

Penn State is an affirmative action, equal opportunity University.