Let's Talk

by Pastor Ray Sines
Collegian Staff Writer

At a time when the stock market looks like a yo-yo that does not want to climb the string again; round two begins and ends with a new Supreme Court nominee; "baby M's" surrogate is pregnant again; and Tabatha has received a complete overhaul—What does one talk about?

"E"—none of the above. Let me share with you a puzzle that was written by a lady in California in response to an offer from a gentleman in Philadelphia (names unknown). The gentleman agreed to pay $1000 to anyone who could write a puzzle he could not solve. He failed to do so and paid the $1000.

The answer is one word and it appears only four times in the Bible. Put your thinking cap on and see if you can solve it.

WHO AM I?
"Adam, God made out of dust, but thought it best to make me first; so I was made before man to answer God's most holy plan. A living being I became and Adam gave to me my name; I from his presence then withdrew, and more of Adam never knew. I did my maker's law obey nor ever went from it astray. Thousands of miles I go in fear, but seldom on earth appear. For purpose wise which God did see, He put a living soul in me. A soul from me God did claim, and took from me the soul again; so when from me the soul had fled, I was the same as when first made. And without hands or feet or soul, I travel on from pole to pole. I labor hard by day, by night; to fallen man I give great light. Thousands of people young and old, will by my death great light behold. No right or wrong can I conceive; the Scripture I cannot believe. Although my name therein is found; they are to me an empty sound. No fear of death doth trouble me; real happiness I'll never see. To heaven I shall never go or to hell below. Now when these lines you slowly read; go search your Bible with all speed; for that name is written there; I do honestly to you declare. Who am I?"

If you are still puzzled don't feel bad, the answer will appear in the next issue of the Collegian.

About that letter, Eric. . .

Recently the Collegian received a letter complaining that we weren't performing anywhere near par. Is that true? Before I address the letter I would like to find out whether or not we are performing up to par. Let us know. . .until then Eric. . .

GREAT AMERICAN SMOKEOUT

A FEW QUIT TIPS

Hide all ashtrays, matches, etc. Lay in a supply of sugarless gum, carrot sticks, etc. Drink lots of liquids, but pass up coffee & alcohol. Tell everyone you're quitting for the day. When the urge to smoke hits, take a deep breath, hold it for 10 seconds, & release it slowly. Exercise to relieve the tension. Try the "buddy system," and ask a friend to quit too.

TAKE A BREATHER

Join the Great American Smokeout on Thursday, November 19. Millions of smokers across the country will take a break and try not to smoke for 24 hours. How about you? Or, if you don't smoke, adopt a smoker for the day and promise to help that friend get through the day without a cigarette!
