CAPITOL CAMPUS - MIDDLETOWN, PA.

February 10, 1971

COMMUTING STUDENTS ORGANIZE

There are 440 Commuting Students who attend Capitol Campus. These students have no voice in Student Government, although they comprise one-third of the student body.

Bob Klugiewicz would like to see the Commuting Students become a powerful force at Capitol Campus, so he is trying to organize a group of Commuting Students.

"We're trying to get something together for commuting students. We'd like to have our voice in SGA, and we'd like to discuss problems that commuting students face," said Bob.

Many commuting students hold jobs, and many of them have families. Direct involvement with SGA is impossible. "We're not a static force on campus. Many of us fluctuate back and forth between school and home," Bob explained.

"We must form this organization to let people know we're here. We would like a representative in SGA, but right now we don't even know how many students who commute are involved in student organizations."

"Why can't there be a Commuting Students' Organization?", Bob commented, "even in Orientation, when the Meade Heights people go to meetings to discuss their problems, the Commuters should have meetings too...we must know that we are a part of Capitol

Campus.

"An Organization of Commuting Students would definitely be an asset for Capitol."

Other commuting students who are involved in planning the organization are John Hummel, Daniel Seitz, Tom Zimmerman and Helen Martin.

Beginning next week, the CAPITOLIST will include a Commuting Students' Column as a regular feature.

Soc. Sci. Work-Study Program

Problem: Students cannot get work experience during school years and upon graduation or during summer breaks are unable to work in chosen area due to this lack of experience. After graduation, they are not familiar enough with actual procedures to be efficient or effective.

Solution:

1. One term of senior year designated for work-study program.

2. Term will be decided upon by the student.

3. Grade will be given by Dept. head and full credit received for entire term (12 credits).

4. Evaluations will be made by employer and faculty member.

5. Dept. will determine and make requirements as to: what is to be derived from work experience, how student will relate knowledge to PSU (written test, oral test, paper...).

6. PSU will place student in appropriate position in Harrisburg area.

7. This program should operate similarly to the present El. Ed. program in this senior year.

8. The student will or will not receive monetary payment for his services (not yet determined).

9. A student committee comprised of juniors and seniors in the Soc. Sci. curriculum will serve as the medium between students, faculty, and administration. If faculty committee fails to get program approved, then University Park officials will be approached by student committee.

10. Employer references may be placed in student's file to be used later in job applications. (Optional).

11. This program will introduce and encourage student into business world.

12. Student will have an opportunity to test what he feels is right for him.

We would like and appreciate your support and suggestions. Please call either: 944-5197, 944-7807 or 944-7832.

Prize Winning Cinematographer To Discuss Motion Picture Making

Mr. Ira Laird, of Laird Productions will present a demonstration and lecture Thursday, February 18 at 7:00 p.m. on "How to Make Motion Pictures". In addition to showing excerpts from some of his prize winning films Mr. Laird will explain the techniques used to make good motion pictures, including composition, editing, splicing, script writing, use of different lenses, sound tracks, and many other techniques which the professional uses to produce good films for your school projects or for your own enjoyment.

In addition to being a still photographer, Mr. Laird is one of the few people in this area adept in cinematography. Laird Productions is the only prize winning organization of its kind in central Pennsylvania. Presently Mr. Laird is producing films for industry, advertising, television, and the trade shows.

His films won more than a score of national and international prizes. Movie making is now in expanding use as a dynamic substitute for the drab term paper. Here is an opportunity to learn the fine points which can make your film project a really great movie.

Mr. Laird, in addition to his motion picture interest, is presently Deputy Insurance Commissioner for companies with this State's Insurance Department. He also teaches several courses in insurance here at the Capitol Campus.

STUDENTS SIGN PEACE TREATY

SGA President Lee Levan and CAPITOLIST Editor Rosemary Scanlon ratified a Joint Treaty of Peace Between the People of the United States and the People of South Vietnam and North Vietnam.

The document was drawn up by a delegation of eleven American students who traveled to Hanoi and met with official representatives of the North Vietnamese National Student Union and the South Vietnamese Liberation Student Union. Representatives from the three groups signed the Joint Declaration of Peace.

Many organizations in the United States and Vietnam will be receiving copies of the Treaty for ratification.

The following is a text of the Peace Treaty, as signed by the Capitol Campus students:

JOINT TREATY OF PEACE BETWEEN

THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE PEOPLE OF SOUTH VIETNAM AND NORTH VIETNAM

Be it known that the American and Vietnamese people are not enemies. The war is carried out in the names of the people of the United States and South Vietnam but without our consent. It destroys the land and people of Vietnam. It drains America of its resources, its youth and its honor.

We hereby agree to end the war on the following terms, so that both peoples can live under the joy of independence and can devote themselves to building a society based on human equality and respect for the earth.

1. The Americans agree to immediate and total withdrawal from Vietnam and publicly to set the date by which all American forces will be removed.

The Vietnamese pledge that as soon as the U.S. Government publicly sets a date for total withdrawal:

2. They will enter discussions to secure the release of all American prisoners, including pilots captured while bombing North Vietnam.

3. There will be an immediate cease-fire between U.S. forces and those led by the Provisional Revolutionary Government of South Vietnam.

4. They will enter discussions of the procedures to guarantee the safety of all withdrawing troops.

5. The Americans pledge to end the imposition of Thieu-Ky-Khiem on the people of South Vietnam in order to insure their right to self-determination and so that all political prisoners can be released.

6. The Vietnamese pledge to form a provisional coalition government to organize democratic elections. All parties agree to respect the results of elections in which all South Vietnamese can participate freely without the presence of any foreign troops.

7. The South Vietnamese pledge to enter discussion of procedures to guarantee the safety and political freedom of those South Vietnamese who have collaborated with the U.S. or with the U.S. supported regime.

8. The Americans and Vietnamese agree to respect the independence, peace and neutrality of Laos and Cambodia in accord with the 1954 and 1962 Geneva conventions and not to interfere in the internal affairs of these two countries.

9. Upon these points of agreement, we pledge to end the war and resolve all other questions in the spirit of self-determination and mutual respect for the independence and political freedom of the people of Vietnam and the United States.

By ratifying the agreement, we pledge to take whatever actions are appropriate to implement the terms of this joint Treaty and to insure its acceptance by the government of the United States.
