LAST WEEK IN THE FFL

By Steve Rosenzweig

Not too much went on in the FFL last week with rain cancelling a number of games. But the big story was Them beating the Trojans 14-13 in a toughly fought contest. Chuck Porter and Joe Hudock had TD's for the winners. If Them doesn't win it all this year they will certainly be almost unbeatable next year with most of their lettermen returning.

In other games the M&M's beat the Gornicks 19-7. McFadden scored two touchdowns and Poidence one for the victors. Lopez had the only Gornicks tally. The Studs Blue shut out the Hairy Hogs 28-0, with scores by Rush, Krumsky, and two by Hall.

The Hairy Hogs then did the best thing they could do all year. They forfeited to two of the top teams in the league, the XGI's and A.M.F. The Hairy

Hogs have thus been thrown out of the league.

Coming to the end of the season I see the top five teams for the playoffs as being XGI's, Trojans, A.M.F., Them and the Green Knights. I'm going all the way with the Trojans in predicting them to win the championship.

If there is a tie for first place a coin-flip will determine the bye. A tie for the fifth spot would cause a playoff. This isn't impossible with the Studs Blue coming on strong and the Green Knights starting to show their age.

The first round of the playoffs will take place on Monday, November 15. The second round will be held Wednesday, November 17 and the championship game will be held on Super Sunday, November 21.
