PITTSBURGH-- Penn State dominated the second annual PCPA All-State Football Team picked by the state's collegiate sports editors in a poll conducted by the Pennsylvania Collegiate Press Association.

All-American halfback Lydell Mitchell was selected Player-of-the-Year and coach Joe Paterno was selected Coach-of-the-Year to give the Nittany Lions a sweep of these honors.

Penn State had six players on the offensive unit and four on the defensive unit. Villanova and Temple each played three players on the team and Edinboro State had two players on the team.

Villanova end Mike Siani and Mitchell were the only two repeaters on the team.

Siani caught 49 passes for 960 yards and 14 touchdowns. Mitchell, whose 148.4 yards per game rushing average ranked him among the national leaders, scored 29 TDs to set an NCAA record.

Equipment Check-out

Equipment may be checked out by any student, faculty or staff member for a two day loan period. The person's signature and University ID card is required. ID cards will not be returned until equipment is returned or fees paid for replacement. Lost or broken equipment must be purchased. Any fees will not exceed the delivery and purchase price for new equipment. Receipts must be received when charges are paid at the Recreation/Athletics Building between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.
