

XGI A RIPS INTRAMURAL LEAGUE; SETS SCORING RECORD.

XGI-A, led by All Stars Bruce Cox and Paul Wendolowski, continued their domination of the IBA. They blasted Airheads 54-28 and the following night set an IBA mark by destroying the Dirty Harrys 93-19. The old record was held by DMZ—a 66-2 victory over the Studs.

On Wednesday night, in a battle of unbeaten, the A team with Wayne Seigfried, Bill Bailey, and Cox strongarming under the boards and Larry White, Bob Lopez and Wendolowski, ballhawking, and Len Thompson, hammering the referees, overcame stall tactics by the No Trains to go away with a 30-17 win.

AMF BLUE, the only other IBA team with a perfect mark are on their way to a showdown with the XGI-A providing they get past No Trains. They also have two All Stars—M. Elward and D. Szatkowski.

The Foulballs, coached by Joe "Pop" Torpey are on the up and up — beating the XGI-B 27-25. The game might have been reversed if one of the refs had not blocked a B team player.

Congrats to the All Stars.
