SGA General Elections

MIKE DINI Elected President

Mike Dini has been elected President of the Student Government Association for the academic year 1972-73.

In last Thursday's balloting, Dini received approximately 32 per cent of the valid votes cast for President, in a six-way race. Max Brady, a junior Business student who is also Advertising Manager for THE CAPITOLIST, was elected Vice-President. Bernie Boyle was elected Recording Secretary and Debra Young Corresponding Secretary in uncontested races. Tom Dixon defeated Don Snyder in their head-to-head confrontation in the contest for SGA Treasurer.

Five program senators and four at-large senators were also chosen. Ron Edwards will represent Social Science students in the coming year. Incumbent senator Joe Perretta was reelected as a representative of the Business Program. Bonnie McSweeney, Humanities, and Ron Snyder, Engineering, were also reelected, in uncontested races. Jim Quill won a tight four-way race to be elected Elementary Education senator.

The four candidates receiving the highest number of votes, but not elected as program senators are the new at-large senators, representing the student body as an entity. The at-large senators are: Robert Thompson, Business; Joseph Kubiak, Business; Elyse Paul, Social Science; and Steve Levy, Social Science.

However, Levy withdrew from the University after the ballots were printed. It is not known if he plans to reenter Capitol Campus next fall. If he does enroll in September, the at-large seat will remain his. If he decides not to hold office, either Judith LePere or Evon Golphin will become the at-large representative in Levy's place. LePere and Golphin tied at 34 votes each. If Levy does not hold office, the new student government will settle the situation when it assumes power in September, according to SGA sources.

The following is the official breakdown in the SGA voting from the 491 ballots cast, about one-third of the student population:

PRESIDENT - Mike Dini, 136 votes or 32%; John Sheridan 93 or 22%; Fred Manas, 75 or 18%. Sen. Gene Bryan finished a shockingly dismal fourth with 51 votes. Ray Nearhood received 35 tallies. Steve Berry, who withdrew from the campaign but whose name remained on the ballot, got 30 votes.

VICE-PRESIDENT - Max Brady, 156 votes for 36.7% of the votes cast for the office. Marilyn Levin was second with 137 or 32.2%. Charlie Carlin finished a strong third with 132 votes or 32.1%.

SECRETARY - Bernie Boyle received 376 votes in her drive as Recording Secretary and Debra Young got 377 as Corresponding Secretary. Young's vote total was the highest gathered by any candidate as she ran unopposed.

TREASURER - Tom Dixon, currently a Senator, captured 260 votes for 65% of the total cast for this particular office. Don Snyder received 140 votes for 35%.

SENATORS

SOCIAL SCIENCE - Ron Edwards, 72 votes; Steve Levy, 55 votes; Elyse Paul, 53; Evon Golphin, 34.

BUSINESS - Joe Perretta, 74; Robert Thompson, 65; Joe Kubiak, 62.

HUMANITIES - Bonnie McSweeney, 83 votes.

ENGINEERING - Ron Snyder, 88 votes.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION - Jim Quill, 36 votes; Judith LePere, 34 votes; Andy Fuller, 31; Anthony Lombardozi, 22 votes.

MATH-SCIENCE - no candidate on the ballot, but Michael Cernusca received three write-in votes. A senator from the program will be appointed by the SGA.

The Constitutional question failed to pass on an absolute majority, but an official count has yet to be announced. As of this writing, a recount was planned.

Sen. George McGovern received the highest number of votes in Capitol's Presidential Preference balloting. The South Dakota Democrat pulled down 45% of the total vote in a field of 10 candidates which included both Republicans and Democrats. The official results: McGovern, 171 votes; Pres. Richard M. Nixon, 99 votes; Gov. George C. Wallace, 43; Sen. Edward Kennedy, 26; Sen. Hubert Humphrey, 16; Rep. Shirley Chisholm, 14; Sen. Edmund Muskie, 8; Sen. Henry Jackson, one and Representative Pete McClosky and John Ashbrook failed to receive a vote.

THE CAPITOLIST congratulates all winners in the election and sends condolences to the almost winners. Let us now work together as a community for our mutual benefit.

YEARBOOK SHIPMENT CUT

FINAL ANNOUNCEMENT

FROM THE CAPITOLITE

In an editorial decision last week, the total yearbook order of the 1972 Capitolite has been cut by fifty books. Editor Tom Ogden told Capitolist reporters, "We just have not been selling enough books to justify its production. Despite that fact, we will continue delivery of books to those who have been faithful enough to order." Ogden suggested that part of the staff's problem has been students' promise to order books and failure to do so. As a result, an over-speculation on the staff's part would have caused dozens of extra annuals to flood Capitol Campus next year. Rather than cheapen the yearbook, the editors of the Capitolite decided to cancel all further organized sales and order only enough extra copies of the 1972 annual for problems in mailing, inter-school trade and staff use. Students who have neglected to purchase books and still wish to attempt to do so are advised to contact either Tom Ogden at 944-7768 or any member of the yearbook staff immediately, since the printer's deadline for receipt of purchaser's addresses is June 1, 1972.

The following persons still owe the balance of their 1972 Capitolite. If all monies are not received by June 1, 1972, your yearbook contract WILL BE CANCELED without refund:

Anyone appearing on the above list who has already paid in full or has any questions, please contact Tom Ogden at 944-7768. Anyone still wishing to purchase a 1972 CAPITOLITE and has not yet done so, contact Mr. Ogden or any member of the yearbook staff immediately; after shipment orders are sent your purchase cannot be guaranteed.

A. Edwards Presents Lecture

S.G.A. elections were not the only highlights of the day at Capitol last Thursday. There was also an interesting display of art on hand in the Gallery Lounge and a lecture presented by the artist who produced it, Herbert Edwards.

Mr. Edwards' work, which included a series of oil paintings on canvas and velvet, drew widespread praise from those students who got to view the collection during its week long stay in the lounge.

A graduate of the Art Institute of Pittsburgh, Mr. Edwards worked for a number of years as a commercial artist. He has taught art at the Bettis Atomic Energy Laboratory. In 1959 he switched from the commercial art field to formal art and from there proceeded to work with the oil productions which were on display. Primarily a portrait artist, he has done portraits of several prominent people. His works have been shown in Toronto, Canada; Milwaukee, Pittsburgh, Cleveland and New York.

His lecture dealt with the field of commercial art and his own personal feelings about the meaning of art. His lecture was highlighted by some interesting statements like: "I have never seen an ugly person. There might be a lot of character in those features that one might consider ugly." and "A dead person is the best model to use." His general concept of art was that "art or drawing is the desire to interest others in what has interested you."

It seemed that most people who saw his works were interested in what he had to display and talk about. Our thanks to the Student Activities Office for bringing such a fine artist to Capitol Campus.

Alcoa Scholarship

Capitol Campus has again received a grant of $750.00 from the Alcoa Foundation. This is to be used to support one student in either EDET or MDET for the school year 1972-73.

A committee has been formed to screen applicants and select an awardee. This committee desires to receive application from all students who feel that their scholarship and/or need for financial assistance warrants their being considered for this award. A tentative deadline of May 25th has been established for receiving applications.

Those interested in being considered should make application at office suite W-356. Further information may be obtained from Dr. R.T. Brown in W-356C, Prof. W.H. Adkins in E-356 or Prof. D. Miller in W-164. Students who have previously completed application for the All University Scholarships need not resubmit a form as they will be automatically considered.
