Lions win Second Straight over Stevens Trade

by Mark Israel

Capitol Campus played two basketball games Friday night. They won the first one handily, but they almost lost the second.

Of course, in actuality, the Lions only played one game, and they won, beating Stevens Trade, 78-75. But it shouldn't have been as close as it was. After a slow start which saw the Traders holding a 23-16 lead at 10:54 into the game, the Lions roared back.

Sparked by a fight between Jim Merlano and Joe DiFerdinando (which Merlano won), Capitol reeled off eight straight points, mostly from the foul line to take a 24-23 lead. They continued to dominate and outscored the Traders 25-8 in the last 9 minutes of the first half, to lead 41-31.

After a brief rest, the second game began. Led by Tommy Ogden, Paul Hook, and Bob Lambert, the Lions opened up a 53-37 lead.

Then, something happened. The team has not won a road game in two years, and that old disease, roaditis, appeared to be coming back again.

Led by Del Kresier, the Traders chipped away at the lead and came back to tie the score at 62 with 7:15 left to play on a Steve Weaver basket. The Traders continued to dominate and built up a 70-64 lead with just 3:42 to play. It looked as though roaditis had struck again.

But this year's team is different from the others. They're tougher and stronger mentally than any team in this campus' history. They don't quit when the going gets a little rough. And what's more important, they think as a team, not individuals.

It was at this point, when roaditis was about to show its ugly face again, that the team made a decision. They decided to give the disease the proverbial finger and play basketball the way they're capable of.

Baskets by Lambert and Ogden cut the lead to two, 70-68. A foul shot by Rick Kopko, and a three-point play by Ogden cut the lead to 73-72. Then, with 1:28 remaining, Kopko, one of the team's most underrated players, scored to give Capitol their lead back. Two more baskets by Hook and Rick Schropp, the teams' outstanding junior swing man, clinched the victory.

This weekend shows a tough three games in four night schedule. Tomorrow night the team is eyeing their rematch with Spring Garden, whom they lost to earlier in the season, 76-57. This time around, everyone connected with the team is confident the score will be reversed. Game time is 8:00 PM at the Manin Street Gym, and admission is free.

are registered with the school. The fact as to how unusual the vehicle may appear does not constitute a reason as to why the vehicle should be recognized by the officer giving the ticket. But it is the responsibility of the officer to ticket those vehicles that do not have a sticker.

I interpret the "No Sticker" section on the ticket referring to two categories of violation.

(A) The student has not registered his/her vehicle with the school. Therefore, he/she did not receive a sticker to place on the vehicle.

(B) The student has registered the vehicle and has received a sticker, but has not placed the sticker on the vehicle.

Because the student did not have the sticker on the vehicle, I feel the officer was right in placing the ticket on the car.

 Randall Lee Blimline

Justice Samuel Randazzo questioned the specifications of this sticker was a pool sticker which comes under the Special Provisions Sections (F) of the Motor Vehicle Regulations.

There are separate provisions in these Regulations for both bumper stickers and for pool stickers. There is also included on tickets issued separate boxes to be checked for either "No Permit or Sticker" and "Permit or Sticker Improperly Displayed." This leaves no doubt in my mind that "No Permit or Sticker" is not to include any requirements pertaining to "Permit or Sticker Improperly Displayed" and vis versa; They are two separate violations.

Mr. Bowman should not be held for "prima facie" evidence--no matter how troublesome or time consuming--after such evidence has been disproved.

Upon this argument I dissent.

Samuel Randazzo

Justice Larry Olexa argued that Bowman's "forgetfulness" should have been excused outright, with the violation being totally removed from his vehicle record.
