by Bob Chaapel

Tuesday, March 6, marked the last meeting of the Chi Gamma Iota Fraternity for the Winter Term. Nine associate members were voted in as full members of the fraternity. Congratulations to all new members! At the meeting conclusion the newly elected officers were sworn in by outgoing president Dick Mulfinger.

Immediately after the meeting, an XGI seminar, conducted by Allentown Louie, was held at Helen's. Bill Potter's Uncle George was the guest speaker and he delivered a moving speech on "The Evils of Carousing and Overindulgence." Due to the outstanding turnout, Allentown Louie has scheduled five more seminars for the Spring Term. Keep up the good work Louie.

Turning to the sports scene, the XGI's have concluded their roundball competition. The XGI "A" Team wound up 4-9 on the season, while the "B" Team came on strong to finish at 6-7. Bill "Stretch" Potter had the distinction of making the last basket of the season for the XGI's. Keep up the good work Bill and say hello to your Uncle George for us. He's a helluva good man.

All members are reminded that the next frat meeting is Tuesday, April 3, at the Middletown American Legion. Anyone expressing an interest in the fraternity is invited to attend the meeting which begins at 8 pm.

Pinochle Tournament

by J.D.

The Meade Heights Pinochle Tournament Championship was decided last Sunday in a blazing style.

When the smoke cleared, the team of Vito Angelucci and Fred Enders had completely demolished the "Cinderella" team of Paula Greenberg and Carole Karoff. The tournament lasted for three weeks and generated much competition in the Heights.

Special thanks go to Commissioner John Domizio for organizing the tournament. His many hours of toil were deeply appreciated along with his basic kindness and generosity.

A larger tournament is being planned for the spring term. Any team interested may call John Domizio at 944-1902. Once again, congratulations to the winners and for the losers, all we can say is "tough shit."

Thanks, Capitollite

In last week's issue, we presented a montage of photographs highlighting Nostalgia Week.

The art work was designed by our staff photographer, Frank DeSantis. Some of the photos were produced by yearbook staff photographer, Dennis Homberger. We take this opportunity to acknowledge his contribution.
