Yike and Duda win Pinochle tourney

The Meade Heights Pinochle Tournament has come to an end and the team of John Yike and Joe Duda emerged victorious. Andy Oronzi and Steve Konsowitz finished second and Harvey Lubar and Mike Fittipaldi came in third.

The winners split $22 while $12 was awarded second place and $7 third.

The tournament, which was conducted by Commissioner John Domizio, saw 46 people participate. The play lasted nearly four weeks, and the action took place in several houses in the Heights.

Domizio said the tournament, which was held for the second time, was staged "to rouse interest in the game." He also said it stirred some activity in the Heights where "everybody was complaining there is nothing to do."
