C.C. Booters Shutout Harrisburg Italians

By Mike Nonnemacher

On Sunday, November 11, Capitol's soccer team ended its fall season with a 2-0 victory over the Harrisburg Italian Soccer Club. The team was pitted against a Central Penn League team; Coach Trunk felt that the team was, "ripe to step beyond the bounds of Commonwealth Campus competition." The coach had also been seeking a shutout which was delayed primarily due to injuries. It was the first shutout for the Capitol booters and was a great way to end the season!

The team started with ten players as Harold Meyers ran from the dressing room directly on to the field into his right wing position. Ennio Trent proved to be a vital link in communication with an Italian-only-speaking referee - there is still a question on some of the words exchanged.

Dennis Doerr was out the first half due to an injury to his right foot from the last game. After seeing John Harris shoot a penalty shot into the goalie's hand in the first half, Dennis decided to suit up for the second half. Goalie Armand Magnelli saved two penalty direct kicks and a few breakaways providing a major input to the shutout.

At halftime the score was 0-0. Capitol pushed hard the second half. Harold Meyers booted a neat left corner kick. There was a mad scramble in front of the goal with John Harris shooting the ball off one of their men into the goal. Some time later Dennis Doerr picked up a forward pass and torpedoed it into the nets in his usual style making it 2-0 for Capitol. The score held while our reserves carried the game to a close. Continuing the jinx of one freak accident per game, Randy Hess twisted his knee and sat out the rest of the game.

After the game, the team gathered at coach Trunk's house where they had a season's end party. The coach showed them a film that he had directed on the selection of the 1968 U.S. Olympic and Pan American Soccer Team. The team is eagerly looking forward to the spring term when a new season will begin.

The team's line-up for Sunday's game was: Goal-Armand Magnelli, (Tom Peterman), Fullbacks - Ken Albert, Pat Byrne, (Michael Nonnemacher), Halfbacks - Doug Weirich, Larry Lingenfelter, Ennio Trent, (Andy Koval, Bill Davies), Forwards - Randy Hess, John Harris, Barry Deacon, Dan Fitchner, Harold Meyers, (Al Burlikowski, Bob Lawler, Dennis Doerr).

STUDENT FILM FESTIVAL

University Park, Pa. -- An invitational student film festival, possibly the first of its kind for colleges and universities on the Eastern seaboard, will be sponsored by the Graduate Student Association at The Pennsylvania State University. Showing of the film entries here has been scheduled for February 8 through 10.

Student film makers with entries in the festival will represent colleges and universities in Pennsylvania, Maryland, District of Columbia, West Virginia, New Jersey, New York, and Ohio says Samuel A. Tabak, graduate student at Penn State who is handling arrangements for the festival. Deadline for entries is January 23.

The submitted films will be judged by a professional panel which will award $2,050 in cash prizes and certificates to the winning film makers.

The cash awards will consist of two $500 judges awards provided by Schmidts of Philadelphia and six category awards with $250 for first place and $100 for second place for documentary, dramatic, and experimental films.

Regarding judging criteria, the festival committee said, "There are no restrictions on subject matter of films. The concern of the festival is the artistic excellence with which the idea of the film is expressed."

It is planned that winning films will be copied and made into a one and one-half hour show which will tour colleges and universities on a non-profit basis.
