

To Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Fortune forced you from that so-called paradise;
Misfortune keeps you silent on its vice:
Your wife and children still must be Protected from the KGB.

You risked all, even in your native land
To champion human liberty and take a stand -
Not only for your fellow citizens,
But for all oppressed and troubled men.
Few had your courage, few are As selfless as you were:
Socrates, Confucius, Jesus - they have been,
And martyred unknown men.
Your cause was ours, and will be;
Your victory is our victory.

I from China, you from Russia are outcast;
But tyranny will not last.
Together we shall see -
In Russia, China, Cuba -- mankind set free,
And we will drink Mao-tai and Vodka in a toast to resurgent justice burning like sunrise from coast to coast.

My Love For You

by Romeo Trajanus

My love for you cannot be expressed in words
But only in feelings and deeds,
And if you could count every raindrop that falls to earth,
Then You could count all the reasons for our love and needs.

My love for you is not a dying thing,
My love for you is everything.
Our love, like a flower, is a blossoming one,
It bloomed in summer, under a golden sun;
Yet, unlike a flower, it never shall die,
As long as I have you, and the earth has sky.

Because,
As long as there is night and day,
and space all around,
My love for you will never come down.

Creation

...and God said
let there be light
and there was light.
But,... was this light or was it darkness?
Was it negative
or was it positive?
Is God light or is He Dark! is He true or is He false,...
Why if all is question
then is there
Light.
What is meant by Light?
can it be seen,
can God BE!
and God said...
Me!

Plans

The plan is nowhere - going nowhere
resting nowhere;
wandering.
Thoughts and restless ideas growing to a proportion beyond control reaching far from grasp.
The reach is exhausting - tedious exercise drawing from a bound source of energy.
Expectation, seeks to be removed - yet with no strength left:
Meticulously, arrange it - Dare be the one to touch it and Fate the one to plan it.

Thought's

Thought's
Thought's
race through My mind
pain anxiety confusion hate
Why is it?
That in this New I have not found a view No point of perspective
No point of You
It seems that the year in short
Has a View
It has been Gray it has been Blue
But,...
The thought
the Thought
so confused
I can't seem to understand these new Deeds
Who are They?
Why are They?
Who am I?
Why am I?
The confusion Builds
The frustration Climbs Sanity fades
Insanity climaxes
When will this Fine line ever so Long
come to an End...?
Ego
Self
I
all Must be answered, or confusion will Win Sanity will Lose (Ferswint)

CHEERLEADERS

We would like to say "THANK YOU" to our cheerleaders for a job very well done on short notice. Their response and dedication has been terrific. If any of you have attended any of the varsity basketball games you will have to admit they are a sharp looking group too. So...our THANKS to Marge Kenny, Dee Hribovski, Sue Murawski, Linda Dunkle, Debbie Haseman, Bonnie Keefer, Karen Miller, Phyllis Mashman, Bonnie Kallen, Sharon Park and Gina Polinitz.

Also, our deepest appreciation to IRIS PRAGER for organizing this great group. We had just about given up the idea of having any cheerleaders for this term when Iris volunteered to contact students in her classes. Thanks to her efforts we have a larger cheerleading squad than ever before. Since there organization they have attended every game. Monday night, February 25, the varsity basketball season ended and we just want to say many many thanks to all of you nice people !!

The Gallery-Lounge

Grey deafness of winter cold hollows out the middle bone with quick slashes of flying meat, succulent red and soaking, gristled tight onto the shattered chips:
I seek refuge in the gallery-lounge among matted frames empty except for some fool's colorgames brought on by overactive glands.
I like the people there,
if only in ink.
My way of thinking
has made me that way, because in winter air
there are few places to hide when what you treasure most is the heat deep inside.
