

ARMAGEDDON

by Romeo Trajanus

Black, shadowy figures against a rainbow hue Glistening in the sun,
 diamonds amid the dew.
 Whence they come,
 where they go -
 they want you.

White, blazing fingers
 blind all here
 Wiping out darkness
 erasing all fear
 Where you go,
 so do I -
 Faith is always near.

Vacuum, void fingers
 and is all around.
 Black has found white,
 quiet greets sound
 But none remain:
 life's met Death -
 Now Heaven's Ground.

The Desolution Of Hope

despite the dimness of the day and emotion of her manner neither rainbows in the fog or a red and white silk banner could save her from the fate and resignation of the sacred when they face their final act destroyed by the pact and given nearly everything they need.

sandpaper or chrone
 i am not alone
 and the lateness of the hour destroys my only home in an amazing harmony could even be a rapsody was it really meant for me there is nothing to admit about the party papers which have fallen to the floor like big vanilla wafers obscuring all the rug save a patch of blue and gold which makes me feel quite old is there life after death?

fie, foe and fum
 drink some coke and gin the hour is so late it is time to begin a uniform of blue but is it worth the cost are the sea scrolls really lost aaaahhh, how can this be so?

billboards on the road
 your mother is a toad?
 but what about the load?
 How much am I owed?
 you live by a code
 written on a sinus node about to explode
 and destroy my abode aaaaahhhhhhhhh, this must be the end.
