Horizons

Such is a sunrise
when positive thoughts emerge, Such is a situation
that permits one to listen, Such is a thought that seems to perceive, Such is an experience that provides one to feel.

Such is goal seeking to shed that shell, Such is inner growth
when two can get near,
Such is the time
for the sun to set,
Such was a day
our hearts won't forget.

The Smoky Sunlit Choir

Take a toke;
Now exhale. That's it.
You see it curling amorphous-- An indistinct cloud at first.

But look closely now;
With the backdrop of this shadowy room,
At the stream of sunlight
Cascading from the window.
Ease the smoke
To roll lethargically from your mouth.
Persuade it to tumble slowly Toward the wash of light.

Nebulous filaments of fibrous tendrils...
Watch them come Drifting from dark reverie,
Into the light before us;
Rambling patterns of smoky chorus...
And more.

Each new twist of smoky trail
Whispers to my eyes Another melody of memories.
I remember her,
And the torrent of emotions
That she would not control.
Still I cannot hold her responsible.
She is a feeling woman,
And no more. Bless her.

I blame myself;
Mine was a pipe dream.

Life In A Nutshell

by Romeo Trajanus

Sex & Love,
we feel, touch,
touch, feel

Walk on foot, toe,
toe, heel;

Ride on car, road,
road, wheel

But trains & planes & truck & thangs
Are hate & hurt,
bad & pain

While dark & night
scare & fright
But day & light are good & right

And nuts & life are hard & plight
