TEST-TUBE BABIES
SAN FRANCISCO--James Bonner, of the California Institute of Technology has predicted that babies will be conceived in test tubes on a mass scale within two or three generations.

Journey's End

(for W.A.F.)

The nations of man are on their feet angrily shouting down at each other sniffing at the throat, wanting blood looking for the tender spot where teeth sink easily, yielding the best results with minimal effort Angry and absolutely irritable as if they had been awakened too early defending blindly the sleep still in their sleepy outraged eyes

We are awake too early
There are too few dreams

Our rapid eye movements are only to watch for danger in the stranger across the street; in the shadows; in the open;
in the darkness behind our eyes.

Paranoics are those With an inkling of the truth

Truth creeps at the bedside with hollow needle teeth that bite and bite and bite at our throat our loins our eyes laughter biting mercy dead as we moan with yellowed eyes

Truth is a bloody hatchet

Truth is structure
Truth is money

We are men swollen with truth Pimple men ready to pop with both a bang and a whimper
The bang is from truth
We whimper for structure

There is no structure

We are swollen men with swollen ideas
We will not allow acceptance
There is truth in exploitation
We will not accept ourselves as we are: There is a higher truth

waiting at our journey's end
We will swell with ideas they will shake the earth
The truth is, we exist We will swell to bursting if we must

Nothing shakes things up like a giant bomb.

Le Bateau by Henri Emile Benoit Matisee hung in New York's Museum of Modern Art for 47 days, upside down!

Infatuation

Shall I buy your body with my words?
Can smooth manner take smooth skin by surprise
And keep its kindness for only my eyes alone?
I wonder, and hope, and hop at your cross-eyed jests.
Tying myself in Gordian nots,
I can't decipher your quick about-faces.
Your fat Persian, thrown in my lap, as you go out for a walk.
