STATE DEPT. OFFICIAL TO SPEAK

"Detente!?" Will be the subject of discussion with Dr. Herbert J. Spiro, author of numerous books and member of the Planning and Coordination Staff of the U.S. Department of State, Thursday, Jan. 23, 1:40 - 2:40 PM in the auditorium. The International Studies Program and American Studies 475 are sponsoring this program to help launch the "Great Decisions 1975" program of the Harrisburg Chapter of the Foreign Policy Association. All are welcome. Thursday evening, Dr. Spiro will address the FPA's kick-off dinner at Schindler's Restaurant on the U.S. Policy of Interdependence. Visitors are welcome at the dinner at 6:45 PM (reservations required - call Dr. Heindel at 787-7729) and to the meeting at 8 PM which is free - no reservation required. Dr. Heindel has some copies of the Discussion Manual ($4.00) which is useful but not required for participation in any group. Again this year, Capitol Campus is among several co-sponsors of the Great Decisions Program which is in its 21st year.

Prof Writes Book

University Park, Pa. Egon Gartenberg, associate professor of music at the Mont Alto Campus of The Pennsylvania State University, is author of the book, "Johann Strauss--The End of an Era," published by The Pennsylvania State University Press. Originally conceived as an expanded biography of the Viennese "waltz King", the book turned into a portrait of the people, the city, and the times that inspired and loved Strauss' music.

Married Student Group Sessions to be formed

The Counseling Center will be offering a Human Development Growth Group series of weekly sessions for married students and their spouses beginning Wednesday evening, February 12, 1975 and lasting throughout the Winter Term. The sessions will begin at 7:30 p.m. and last until 9:30 p.m. each Wednesday evening in the Counseling Center, W-117.

Enrollment in these sessions will be limited. If you and your spouse are interested in participating, please clip out the form below and return it to the Counseling Center during the day from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and from 1:00 until 5:00 p.m. before February 5, 1975. Participants will be selected on a first-come, first serve basis, so you are encouraged to get your form in early and to arrange for a pre-group interview with the Counseling Center Staff. All inquiries will be held strictly confidential.
