

Casino Night Is Coming

Mytza will belly dance for you at Casino Night Feb 25th. Will you be there?

Students at Capitol Campus will hold a Las Vegas Style "Casino Night" on Tuesday, Feb 25 starting at 8 p.m. in the Student Center.

According to Roberta McLeod, coordinator of student activities, the purpose of the night is to raise money for the Spring Concert. A variety of booths and games will be staffed by campus organizations. The public is invited with an admission fee of $1.00 which will include chips to play the various games.

A professional belly dancer, Mytza Maldonado, who was trained at the Serena Belly Dance Studios in New York City, will provide entertainment. Mytza is currently performing in New York City.

Ms. McLeod explained that three auctions will be held during the evening. Items can be bid upon with the chips won from the games. Music will be provided and refreshments will be available in the student center.

REHAB HELP AVAILABLE HERE

by Fred Prouser

Hire the Handicapped - Just a slogan? Not when Mr. James Day, Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor here at Capitol describes the meaning behind his view of the word handicapped. A handicap is a disability that would hinder employment. Through the Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation, a state agency in the Dept. of Labor and Industry, a myriad of services are offered to handicapped persons.

These services include: employment opportunities, job training and other supportive services to aid the handicapped. Through testing, a person's ability and desire to work are measured. When a person qualifies for aid from The Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation, it may come in the form of tuition, books, and food allowances as is the case of the forty people currently seen by Mr. Day here at Capitol Campus.

The caseload of forty persons is counseled by Mr. Day in such matters as selecting courses for best employment opportunities as well as helping to meet the needs of their specific handicap.

A handicap can be as severe as diabetes or as minor as the need for corrective dentistry. Any questions on eligibility can be easily answered by Mr. Day who is on Campus each Thursday from 11:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. in the Counseling Center.

Appointments can be made with the secretary there to schedule a visit with Mr. Day to determine if you are eligible for assistance under this program.

Theft on Campus

by Fred Prouser

A television monitor, a video tape recorder play-back unit and a tape cassette were stolen from a third floor classroom in the Main Building on Monday night Feb. 3rd. Value of these items was estimated at $1,625.

According to Officer James Paul, Chief of Security, the classroom was secured at 9 p.m. that evening. When the room was checked at 8 a.m. by instructional services personnel, the equipment was discovered missing. All that remained was the table on which the equipment had rested.

No clues were immediately available concerning the theft, however, Campus Security is working on the case.

This has been the only recent theft of considerable value here at the University. Mr. Paul stressed this incident "as an indirect assessment on each and every student."

Although major theft such as this is relatively unknown here at Capitol, Officer Paul mentioned that it was indicative of a larger nation-wide problem.

To combat further such incidents, Mr. Paul emphasized that "security becomes an individual concern." He suggested that if a student sees an unfamiliar person in the building late at night he/she should notify security immediately

Drama Club Slates Two Plays Tonight

The drama club of Penn State Capitol Campus will present two one act plays on Thursday, Feb 13 at 12:15 p.m. and at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the main building.

The Long Christmas Dinner by Thornton Wilder and Santa Claus by e.e.

cummings will be directed by William Turner, a graduate student in Humanities

The interlude between the two plays will feature For the Time Being a choral reading and modern dance expression based on W. H. Auden's poetry and Leonard Bernstein's music. It will be directed by Dr. Jere Berger.

Although the two plays are Christmas oriented, the message is applicable to all times. Mr. Turner, a graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan College, has directed 8 previous productions. A resident of Middletown, he is producing the plays as part of his Master's degree production Actors include Pat McClure of Hummelstown, Helen Swift of Middletown, Roy Gray of Phila., Lucy Kistler of Hbg. and Glenn Bilger of Mechanicsburg. The public is invited to attend these admission free productions.

HACC Holds WRW

The World Record Weekend is a supercontinuous 36 hour event, sponsored by the HACC Alumni Association for the benefit of the South Central Penna. Chapter of the Am. Heart Association, plus the HACC Alumni Endowment Fund and the Penna. Chariot Racers Wheelchair Athletic Team.

The HACC Alumni are holding this WRW because we want Alumni to come back and join us at the "new" HACC for some nostalgic fun; because we want our community to experience some of the facilities and opportunities HACC offers to students these days; because as our Endowment Fund grows we will be able to grant larger scholarships to students; because we believe in the efforts of the Am. Heart Association and the Pa. Chariot Racers Wheelchair Athletic Team; and because there are so many fun ways to help others through fellowship.

You can come and just watch. To watch, buy a button. They are available for $1 from any Alumni, at the HACC Student Center, or any of the Pomeroy's Stores. As long as you wear your button, you may wander in and out as often as you wish; stop to watch anything you find particularly interesting, challenge anything that looks challenging; participate in any lesson, demonstration, game or tournament which catches your fancy.. and much more!

Engineer's Week

This year PSPE is at it again. They are in the process of planning their annual bathtub race. If you are interested in running a tub, marshalling the route, helping organize the race or just have any suggestions, PLEASE contact Don Miller 944-1751

The Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers has a student chapter here at Capitol. The purpose of the chapter is to stimulate professional thinking and to instill in students a desire for professional thinking and to instill in students a desire for professional status. The organization does this by having practicing engineers come to the Campus and speak on the problems that engineers face in our community.

On Feb. 5, 1975, Mr. James A. Romano, P.E. spoke to our organization at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. Mr. Romano is Senior Vice President of Gannett, Fleming, Cordury and Carpenter, Inc., Consulting Engineers of Hbg. He is a professional engineer in nine states plus Penna., and the District of Columbia. Being active in the Hbg. Chapter of PSPE he was president in 1957 and state president in 1968. For seven years, Mr. Romano served as Penna.'s National Director of PSPE.

Mr. Romano's speech was on "Professionalism in Engineering". It provoked some very interesting and prominent areas of thought for young engineers. His presentation was both
