

Capitol Campus Music Festival Set For May 17th

A view of last year's Music Festival which drew over 6,000 people.

Photo by Barb Keefer

The Capitol Campus Music Festival will be held Saturday May 17th from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. This annual event will feature a variety of musical styles that run the gamut from rock to jazz, soul to folk.

Starting the concert off at 11 a.m. will be 'Blauch & Washburn' whose specialty is folk music. Throughout the day, about seven different groups will perform one hour sets in the sunshine at the back of the Engineering lab. There will be plenty of room to stretch out and catch some sun and fine music. Refreshments will be available, ably handled by the XGI's. Free admission and parking are the ground rules for the concert. First aid treatment will be handled by Capitol's own health services.

Student marshalls will take care of crowd control, traffic and cleanup. The Head Shop will be around to help out with any hassles you may have during the Festival.

At this time, traffic marshalls are still needed and anyone interested may contact Ed Jennings at 953B Kirtland Ave. (944-3522).

Other groups performing at the 1975 Capitol Campus Music Festival are: Nickel Bag, Elmer's Kids, Third Stream, Scoop's Joy Diggers, City Limits and for a repeat performance, the group that helped make last year's Festival a smash, Morning Star will perform once again.

Rain Date is May 18th.

Think Sunshine.....

Presented by GOOD PEOPLE'S PRODUCTIONS.

1975's Festival saw over 25,000 people in front of the Administration building.

Penn State

C.C. Reader