Zeros Win Game

A 50-yard touchdown pass to Eddie Stich and a couple of touchdown passes to Fred Clark highlighted the Zeroes 26-6 victory over the Coal Crackers on Monday Oct. 27.

On a gray, overcast day with the wind gusting at five to ten m.p.h., the underdog Zeroes, led by quarterback Tom Gormally, withstood the elements.

In the first quarter, the Zeroes took the lead 6-0 on a 50-yard pass from Tom Gormally to Eddie Stich. All points after touchdowns were no good except the last one.

In the second quarter, Gormally hit an offensive lineman for a 20-yard pickup.

On the very next play, Gormally hit Fred Clark for a 15-yard pass and a 12-0 lead.

Later, the Coal Crackers scored following an interception by a linebacker. Earl Foura hit Mike Szep with a 10-yard strike to close within six at 12-6.

In the third quarter, Gormally went to the air and hit a wide receiver with a long pass, setting up a 15-yard run by Stich.

Late in the fourth quarter Clark found a wide receiver open for a 10-yard toss and the P.A.T. was good when Gormally hit Clark to set the final count 26-6.

Soccer Games Roundup

Coach Ed Trunk's Booters, like the weather, have experienced hot and cold periods in the past two weeks that range from hot scoring streaks to points of complete inactivity.

But, despite the inconsistency, the team did manage a 2-2 record in the two-week period to even their overall slate at 3-3-1.

On October 26, the Capitol Campus Booters started out coolly but warmed up enough to earn a 3-1 victory over Valley Forge Military College at home.

Trunk's troops had difficulty generating any offense in the first half until Mounir Azar tallied a score at 28 minutes into the period.

The second half proved to be more exciting as the Capitol offense got moving and scored two more goals. Left winger Bruce Hironimos started the punch with a score 17 minutes into the period while Mounir Azar knocked in his second goal 25 minutes later.

However, the tables flipped on October 29th as the Capitol Booters were victims to a 3-1 trouncing by Messiah's junior varsity team.

Capitol's offense never did regain their poise in the second half and the game ended with a 3-1 Messiah victory.

This on-again off-again type of play continued October 30th as Trunk's team pulled out a 4-3 thriller over Lancaster Bible College.

John Harris saved the day for Capitol with two quick goals in the last ten minutes of the game to pull out a come-from-behind victory 4-3.

Finally, the coldness came back into play as the Capitol Campus soccer team suffered a 5-0 shutout at the hands of the Ogontz campus on November 1st.

Throughout the game Capitol's offense had scoring opportunities but the Booters' shots were repeatedly blocked by the superb Ogontz goalie. Ogontz dominated the entire game and glided to their sixth consecutive win.

Commenting on his team's up and down season, Trunk said, "The team as individuals have talent, but they haven't developed as a team. I don't think the team will ever show its talent this season."
