We goofed.

We apologize to those students whose classified ads did not get in the last issue of the Reader. And thanks to Stan Saltzman for bringing it to our attention.

Muscles alone aren't enough.

Even the toughest pro needs protection. Shoulder pads, hip pads, helmet—with these, a player can give the game all he's got, without fear of injury.

Life is much the same. Good health is important, but to get the most out of life, you need protection, too. That's where Living Insurance comes in. It can give you the security of knowing that your family will be protected, if you die. And, it can provide a reserve of funds for emergencies, education, retirement. To find out more about Living Insurance, call your Man from Equitable, today.

B.C.A.C. Speaks Out

We the members of the Black Student Union feel that it was very immature and childish to make that statement which was written on the door of the B.C.A.C.

It goes to show that you haven't been reared properly because the Black people on the campus and other college campuses have the same rights as any other person.

We can tell that you need to stay in school to learn not math, chemistry, psychology, etc., but rather learn about yourself.

It was a very ignorant thing to do, and besides that, we are "Black" and very "proud" and if you can't respect us for that, then respect us for trying to establish a Black Culture Center as an educational outlet in order to remove such biased views of Blacks.

Our room is open to everyone for the purpose of Black awareness, and it is evident that you have not become aware of the fact that Blacks are made up of the same things as Whites except we don't go around playing childish games like the one that was attempted here. We have better things to do with our time.

We know that whoever wrote this isn't man or woman enough to come forward and admit they are wrong, because of the fear that he or she has of Black people and the old myths.

Let me say that we are much too intelligent to stoop that low to turn to violence. That is an event of the past, we are the Blacks of the present, representing the Blacks of the future and we deal with matters such as this one through our minds.

If the person comes forth, it will be more educational for him or her than anything else, and that is what a feeble-minded person needs—more education about Black people.

All we demand from people around here is the same amount of respect that we give.

In closing I also would like to say that people like you better wake up before it is too late. We are what's happening and we will always remain united in the struggle and the hassles.

Students Named To Who's Who

By Michael W. Barnett
Staff Writer

Dr. Robert McDermott, Provost of the Penn State-Capitol Campus, announces the acceptance of 29 Capitol Campus students for inclusion in the Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Names of students were submitted to the Who's Who Committee, which was headed by Todd Malpass, by the Council of Presidents, Jerry South, Scott Deardorff, Roberta McLeod, Marian Kreiger and Ed Beck, Doris Hughes and heads of divisions and departments.

Students were evaluated according to grade point average, leadership ability in activities, community service and future potential.

The following students are congratulated for being named to the Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges:
