

BE IT RESOLVED: The Student Government Association has been appalled by the recent racial events on this campus and is demanding the support of each member of the student body, faculty, and staff of this campus in dealing with these immature acts against fellow human beings. Each one of us is a part of this community and for this community to achieve its goals in education, academic as well as residential living, there cannot be room for personal indignities. For the Student Government Association

Casino Night Is Coming

chance. If the games of chance do not interest you, reconsider, for you will not be spending real money.

When you pay your one dollar admittance fee for Casino Night, sponsored by the President's Council, you will be supplied with currency that is not legal tender so you can gamble without fear of losing real greenbacks.

If for some reason you still have no desire to come to Casino Night, you should know that gambling will not be the only form of entertainment offered.

The cheerleaders will be running a kissing booth, and the feature attraction is a performance by a belly-dancer.

Gicas, M.H.B.O.G.; Delbert Dosch, P.S.P.E.; Mark Feldman, Photo Club; Lenny Klonitsko, R.S.C.; Gary Wright, Ski Club; Scott Deardorff, S.G.A.; John D'Alura, WZAP; Larry Shrader, Aviation Club; Ann Kless, NOW; Sue Wohlbruck, Tarnhelm; Geore Dudek, XP; Greg Miely, International Affairs; Debbie Rossi, Cheerleaders; Paul Bailie, Soc. Comm.; and Lynn Kramer, Capitollite.

Meeting are usually held in the Gallery Lounge, on Mondays at 7:00 p.m., and presided over by Gary Weigle, chairman. The meetings are informal, and as in this case, the representatives of each club volunteered their services in whatever area they thought their club could handle. The result of their combined efforts can be witnessed on March 2nd, at 7:00 p.m.

The proceeds obtained from Casino Night, will be donated to Good Peoples Productions, who will sponsor the Spring Concert this May.

Ray Gets With The R. & B. Beat

By Raymond Martin
 Staff Writer

In the unlikely event that anyone takes me seriously, I should preface these remarks by pointing out the fact that I know absolutely nothing about rhythm and blues music. However, even from within my ignorance, I can tell a hell of a good show when I see one. And that is the best description of the Britton Sisters performance on this campus a fortnight ago.

The singer, Wendy Britton, has her considerable talent supported by her sister Ellen on guitar and background singing. Backing both of them up is Get Ya' Baseball Cards Heah!

Did your mother throw out your collection of baseball cards?

If you're lucky enough to still have yours and would like to share these treasures with others, contact either John Patterson (W-154) or Robert Simko (W-357). We'd like to organize a display of this grand example of Americana and need to know how many collectors are out there.

Michael Ford a young man capable of seemingly an infinite variety of moods and methods on piano.

Not only are the songs impressive, they were done impressively. From a Woody Guthrie tragic ballad to Ellen's original and fascinating song. From a New Gerogian ethnic ballad which was a second national anthem of the civil rights movement a decade ago, to one of the dirtiest and funniest songs I've ever heard, it is safe to say that except for the twenty-five of us there, this campus missed a great show.

Grad. Student Named Curator

Paul Figueroa, a recent graduate of Capitol's Master's Program in American Studies, has been named curator of education at the Gibbes Art Gallery in Charleston, South Carolina.

Figueroa is a graduate of the University of Southern California and did his preliminary graduate work at Penn State, University Park. His master's project concerned the Harrisburg city beautification movement and also included an art exhibit entitled "Harrisburg, City Beautiful."

As curator of education, Figueroa will be coordinating the Gallery's activities with schools, colleges and universities, and will also be in charge of all tours conducted at Gibbes.

The committee may plan other programs during the terms and will co-sponsor programs with other organizations or departments on our campus when at all feasible.

Another responsibility of the committee are the art exhibits. The objectives for The Pennsylvania State University, The Capitol Campus Gallery are as follows:

1. To bring quality art exhibits to the campus and community.
2. To serve as an exhibit outlet for student and community artists.
3. To foster an appreciation of the arts.
4. To serve as a meeting place where students, staff, faculty and community people may meet the artist.
5. To serve as a lounge for relaxation and study by students.
6. To serve as a meeting area for organizations, etc.
7. To serve as a program area for cultural events.

Coming exhibits include: International Art Exhibit, Student Photo Exhibit, Sculpture and Phtography Exhibits, and Print Sales.

We would like to encourage everyone to take advantage of all the programs which are presented.
