Intramural Collision

By Deborah Young and Robert Bennett
Staff Writers

"I'll never referee again," said an official at Monday night's intramural basketball game between the Brotherhood and the French Ticklers.

One reason for this comment was the game was a physical one. In total there were 26 personal fouls. Although French Ticklers' Ron Smith's glasses were broken, no one was hurt.

Both teams went into the game with a 2 and 0 record, but when the final buzzer sounded, it was Brotherhood over Ticklers 37-31.

High scorers for the game were Virgil Jules (Brotherhood) 21 points, Rich Kolps (French Ticklers) 10 points, Ron Smith (French Ticklers) 10 points, and Doug Spady (Brotherhood) 8 points.

The low-scoring game was interrupted twice by disagreements between Brotherhood Coach Troy Buster and officials. (See page 1)

Enthusiastic fans helped make this game one of the more exciting games played so far this season.

C. C. Gives Mount Alto "Capitol Punishment"

By Randy Fee
Staff Writer

The Capitol Campus basketball team defeated Mont Alto 73-69 at the old Middletown gymnasium last Tuesday night. The victory brings Capitol's record, for the 1975-76 season, to nine wins and four losses.

Capitol got into trouble early in the game when the Mont Alto shooting blitz-krige forced Capitol into the undesirable situation of playing catch up ball.

John Betchal and Delbert Riley led the Mont Alto scoring attack with 20 and 14 points respectively. So, at halftime Capitol, plagued by bad shooting and weak defensive play, trailed Mont Alto 28 to 35.

Perhaps due to an inspiring lecture by captain Jim Baker ( who many believe to be instrumental in this year's successful season) or the strong vocal support of the cheerleaders and fans, Capitol, looking like a different team, came fighting back in the third quarter.

Jim Baker caught fire on the outside court, scoring 16 points in the second half. Meanwhile, Joe Grant and Rich Fry took turns ripping down rebounds and scoring on the inside court. Fry accumulated a total of 18 points in the game with Grant adding 17 more. Ed Pagola and Scott Kurtz helped to control the ball with a serious display of coordinated dribbling and passing on their part.

With 13:22 remaining in the game, Capitol took the lead for the first time 41-39 and held on to it for the win.
