

Resident Assistant Selection To Begin

A meeting for all persons interested in applying for the Resident Assistant position for the 1976-77 academic year will be held Wednesday, April 7, at 8:00 p.m. in the Gallery Lounge.

Resident Assistants are students employed by the Residence Living Program Office, placed in the campus living areas and responsible for the general welfare of a given number of fellow residents.

Duties include counseling, interpretation and enforcement of policy and social programming within the areas.

Financial remuneration for the position comes in the form of a fee reduction allowance of $589.00 per term for R.A.s assigned to the Residence Halls or $443.00 per term for those assigned to Meade Heights.

Persons applying for the position must be presently matriculating at Capitol, must have a 2.20 cumulative average and must have filed a $45.00 deposit in the Finance Office by March 31 as a request for Fall Term 1976 on-campus housing.

Applications for the R.A. position will be distributed at the April 7 meeting. Interested persons may also pick them up in the Residence Living Program Office (946A Kirtland Avenue, Meade Heights) after that date.

The deadline to file an application for the Resident Assistant position is 5:00 p.m. Friday, April 16 in the Residence Living Program Office.

Questions should be directed to Pat Murphy, residence living coordinator, at the Residence Living Program Office, telephone: 787-1665 or to your Resident Assistant.

Wheeling And Dealing At Casino Night

care. WZAP had a black jack game in progress and those playing seemed to be doing very well.

IEEE had a booth called "Casino Nite at the Races" that caused bettors consternation at the end of the race.

Students paid $.25 per ticket for a horse to win, place or show. A film of a horse race was shown during the latter part of the event to determine the winner. The winner, however, of the filmed race was disqualified because of a foul and placed into second.

The auction was a spirited event. Twenty-five items were placed on the block and sold for a total of $3,288,000.

Some of the items up for bid were five free breakfasts at MacDonalds which went to Dave Schirm and Bob Fisher for their bid of $53,000. Three free bowling games went to Roberts McLeod for her bid of $40,000. And George Dudek pooled his winnings with several of his friends to outbid the Grand Wazoo for the case of Miller Beer.

Awards were given to organizations that had the most Las Vegas type booth, the most carnival type of booth and the most creative type booth.

The most Las Vegas type booth award went to WZAP's black Jack game.

The most carnival type of booth award went to the Meade Heights Board of Governors for E-Z Spin and Balls and Balloons.

The most creative booth award went to PSPE's Rat Race.

According to Paul Bailie, social committee chairman, the event cleared approximately $400. All proceeds will be used for the Spring Concert.

Ask Otto

Get Her To Swing

Dear Otto,

Here's the scoop--vanilla, chocolate, strawberry. Heh! Heh! Only joking. Our roommate, Emmanuelle, has recently broken up with her steady beau. Needless to say she has not been feeling up to par. We are real swingers and want to help her out. How can we get her to swing with us?
 Linda L. and Marilyn C.

Dear Linda and Marilyn,

Tie another tire to the tree.
 Otto.

Dear Otto,

For the past few weeks we have been receiving annoying phone calls. We really don't mind if a few guys want to get their rocks off. But, what bothers us is that they call all hours of the night.

Since we know they read your column, maybe you can help us out.

944-16.

Dear 944-16,

First I'll try a scare tactic. Look fellas, you better cut this out, before Otto really gets mad!

Otto.

Dear Otto,

I really dig an older boy in the Heights. The only time I see him is when he drives past me in his cute green sports car. How can I get him to marry me?

Little Lynn from Pittsburgh.

Dear Little Lynn,

Why not throw yourself in front of his car? Then, maybe, he'll stop.

Otto.

Dear Otto,

My problem is the dude I live with. He does good by me, but I know he is screwing other chicks. How can I get him out of this habit and have him screw only me?

Runaway.

Dear Dope fiend, oh I mean Runaway,

Otto doesn't have time to waste on dumb problems like yours. Besides, if you had any class you'd start hooking!
 Otto.

Students Resort To Violence

(CPS)--Tuition hikes and teacher cutbacks, all caused by state education budgets being tightened to the squeaking point, have provoked violent student demonstrations in New Jersey recently as well as a bizarre incident in Detroit involving animal guts.

In New Jersey, 8,000 protesting students and teachers gathered at the state house in Trenton as several of their leaders met inside with New Jersey Governor Brendan Byrne.

As some of the demonstrators pushed their way towards the capitol doors, they were met by club-swinging police. Six demonstrators and 25 policemen were hurt, at least one seriously. Police dogs were eventually used to clear the demonstrators from the scene.

Later in the week, students and faculty members at William Patterson College in Wayne, New Jersey smashed a window and ripped two doors from their hinges as they tried to gain access to a closed meeting of the college's Board of Trustees. The protesters were angered by the recent firing of 38 teachers.

Patterson College was also the scene of a demonstration a few days after the Board of Trustees incident when about 400 students left a spontaneous rally, marched off to the school's administration building where about 150 students swept inside and demanded to see the president. The president, who has since resigned under Trustee pressure, was not in the building at the time and the crowd dispersed.
