Tennis Team Conquers First 3 Foes

Capitol's tennis team got the season off to a victorious note by winning its first three matches.

The first win came in a home match against Williamsport Area Community College by a 5-4 score.

Next the team traveled to Penn State's Delaware Campus. Capitol won the match, 6-2, in a curtailed contest due to darkness.

Number 1 seed, Don Raich is off to a great start easily winning all of his singles matches by lopsided scores.

The team has been considerably strengthened with the addition of Pete Fuoco and Bob Gabler who play in the numbers 2-4 position. Tom Coleman, who played one last year, is now coaching the team and plays either 2 or 3.

Also playing fine tennis for the team include Barry Healy, Steve Goldstein, Jim Abod, Rick Larmour, Ed Arnold, Ron Hartman, John Schultheiss, and Ramone Segree.

The third match of the year was a 6-3 win over Penn State's Ogontz Campus on April 7 on Capitol's courts.

Brotherhood Tops Ticklers

"We did rise to the occasion!" said Troy Buster, proud coach of this season's undefeated basketball team.

Troy said he thought last month's final game for the championship was one of the best games of the season.

"The gym was packed and most spectators seemed to be rooting for the French Ticklers. Both teams were psyched-up for the game, and the referees made better calls than at past games."

Troy said he believed Fist city had been a stronger team than the Ticklers, but the French Ticklers played as best they could. He added that Rich Klotz was one of the French Ticklers' better players along with Mercury Morris and Rodney Metzger.

Troy also praised players on his own team, citing for outstanding performances: Virgil Jules for points scored and rebounds, Keith Holton and Kaaba for points and blocked shots and Rudy Tracy for offensive shooting and defensive play.

Brotherhood players practiced every Saturday and were determined to win the championship, Troy said. Last year the team finished 15 and 1. Troy said experience was also a factor for this year's performance since Virgil Jules, Doug Spady, Keith Holton, Jimmy Owen and Remone Sagree were players last year.

Asked about next year,

Troy said he was proud of his team's performance and hoped they would be in the same position next year.
