

Lockson To Address Black Women's Caucus

A program to commemorate achievements by blacks in Pennsylvania will be held Sunday, May 16, at 5:00 p.m. at the William Penn Museum.

The program is co-

There will be no classified ads in our special graduation issue to be distributed during commencement on June 12th.

As a special service, the Reader will print personal messages from graduating seniors in that issue.

Messages should be no longer than 40 words and must be printed or typed on the regular Reader Classified Ad Forms.

These green forms can be obtained in the Reader office (W129) or SGA office (W110).

Please bring the forms to the Reader office or leave them in the Reader mailbox in W110.

Deadline for submitting personal messages is Thursday June 3rd at 12 Noon.

sponsored by the Black Women's Caucus of Harrisburg and the Historical and Museum Commission.

The featured speaker for the occasion is author-historian Charles L. Blockson of Philadelphia.

During the program a local high school student will receive a scholarship from the Black Women's Caucus.

Following the program refreshments will be served and an autograph party will be held.

Copies of Mr. Blockson's recent book, "Pennsylvania's Black History", will be available in both hard and paperback editions.

The program is open and free to the public.

The Black Women's Caucus is a non-profit group dedicated to promoting community involvement and an awareness of community needs and problems.

Drinking Pays Off

(CPS)--Western Illinois University proved itself one of the top beer drinking schools in the country by winning the Miller Brewing Company's Scholarship contest.

Western won the $1000 scholarship by collecting more Miller's cans, bottles and keg stickers per student than any of the 20 schools in the contest.

The scholarship idea was brewed by Miller as an experiment to boost the participation in their reclamation program on college campuses.
