

Photo by: George Crowell

Model U.N. At Capitol

By George Crowell
The International Affairs Association and Professor Clem Gilpin, on February 24th, hosted the Capitol Campus high school model U.N..

Senior high school students from the central Pennsylvania area participated each representing a given country. In this exercise the students were to Africa, nuclear limitation, the P.L.O. and the question of the Panama Canal.

The exercise served to familiarize the students with contemporary problems in the world and possible solutions. The exercise also served as a test run for those Capitol Campus students who will take part in the National College

Photo by: George Crowell

Paul Scartelli as he addresses the high school model U.N. study their country, become familiar with its domestic and foreign policy and be prepared to propose various resolutions presently being considered by the United Nations in New York.

Topics discussed included the question of majority rule in Rhodesia, apartheid in South

Model U.N. in New York this April. The events opened Thursday afternoon with the arrival of the junior delegates. Meetings were held from Thursday through Saturday afternoon. The ceremonies ended the session that evening. A dance in Vendorville followed.

Capitol Campus News Briefs

Wiseman

The next film in the Frederick Wiseman Film Series will be presented in the auditorium next week.

On Mon., March 7, at 12:15 P.M. and 8:00 P.M. the film, "Basic Training", will be shown. In his review in "The San Francisco Chronicle", Terrence O'Flaherty said, "On the surface it was a training film for war. But for the sensitive and intelligent it was a screaming cry for peace..."

The film festival, which is free to the public, is sponsored through the combined efforts of the student activities office, the academic programs, the social committee and the Black Student Union. All are cordially invited.

ACES

On Tuesday, February 22, the students of Bus 361, "Operations Management," were addressed by Larry DiLoreto, General Operations Manager of the Olivetti Corporation plant located near Harrisburg. Mr. DiLoreto described the Production process at the plant and also covered a wide range of other business topics. The local plant manufactures typewriters, calculators, and information processing equipment. Olivetti is a multinational corporation and has a world-wide market.

Ralph C. Aymin, Instructor of Management, presented Mr. DiLoreto with a framed certificate of appreciation signed by Provost McDermott. Arrangements for Mr. DiLoreto's presentation were coordinated through ACES, Americans for a Competitive Enterprise System.

Friend$

Book donations are now being accepted for the Middletown Friend$ of the Library 3rd annual book sale, April 22-23.

Books may be left at the library itself, 7 South Union Street, Middletown. Library hours are 11:00 A.M. - 2:00 P.M. and 6:00 P.M. - 9:00 P.M. weekdays, and 9:00 A.M. - 1:00 P.M. Saturdays.

Students, faculty, and staff may leave book donations with Leonard Brewster, Room W-161 (Humanities Dept.).

Books may also be left at the following churches: Ebenezer

A.M.E. Church, Market and Lincoln Streets; Evangelist United Methodist Church, Spruce and Water Streets; St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Spring and Union Streets; and Wesley United Methodist Church, Ann and Catherine Streets.

If you would like to arrange for a Friends member to pick up books at your home for donation to the sale, contact one of the following persons: -Pineford Village residents may call George Sinatra, 944-3720.

-Shopes Garden residents may call Linda Bennett, 939-0517. -Middletown and area residents may call Carol Olsen, 944-1965. -Or you may call the library, 944-6412.

All categories of books will be accepted, including fiction, Readers Digest condensed books, children's, youth, reference and text books, and all the various divisions of nonfiction; also, National Geographics and phonograph records.

This is the time to sort through your books for donations.

Then on Friday, April 22, or Saturday, April 23, come to the sale and find some new ones to read.

Proceeds from the sale benefit the Library Building Fund.

Antiques

The social science program will conduct a six week course entitled "American Antiques".

The course, designed primarily for the interested beginner, will cover such topics as: what an antique really is and what the connoisseur looks for; and how to identify antique American furniture, paintings, glass, ceramics, metals, floor coverings, textiles, and baskets.

Dr. Irwin Richman will be the instructor. He is the author of books, articles and pamphlets on Pennsylvania and American history. Richman also served as curator of history at the William Penn Memorial Museum, and as special projects assistant to the Executive Director of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission.

The course will be held 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. beginning March 31 and will run for six weeks. The fee for the course is $40 which includes all educational materials.

McCarthy

Prof. R.H. Heindel's class in U.S. Diplomatic History issues an invitation to hear Gen. Joseph E. McCarthy discuss "Vietnam in Perspective," Friday, March 11, 12:15 p.m., Gallery Lounge. Gen. McCarthy, who has a Ph.D. from the University of Maryland, had two tours of duty in Vietnam. He is the author of "Illusion of Power: American Policy Toward Vietnam, 1954-1966."

SGA

The SGA is preparing for the Spring Elections. The tentative schedule is:

- March 1 - Petitions available in SGA office (W-110)
- March 1 through April 8 - Screening Period.
- April 6 - Deadline for petitions to be returned.
- April 12 - Election Day.
- April 13 - Swearing in of new officers.

Datefinders

Datefinders is an organization whose objective is to introduce you to others who share your interests and outlook on life.

Commercial dating is nationwide and growing at a tremendous rate. Presently, there are over a thousand dating services of all kinds using radio, newspapers, and national television networks to publicize their services.

Datefinders cannot guarantee a perfect match nor can we conduct the courtship, but we do guarantee personal service in a sometimes impersonal society.

Our membership standards are high, for your protection. Applicants are turned down if we feel that the needs and interests of the applicant cannot be served. This selectivity gives you the opportunity to meet not just people, but people who are right for you because they have been carefully selected especially for you.

Regular non-profit social events will be another facet to be introduced to club members and the public in the future. Other events will also be sponsored in accordance with response.

Datefinders is presently opened to the public for membership. This will be your club. Its success will depend on you! Why not give it a try? Call Datefinders at 533-6126.

Other Things Besides

By Karen Pickens

Keggers are the XGI's main claim to fame here at Capitol Campus, but they do other things besides drink. Last Friday the fraternity sponsored a trip to the Coatesville Veterans Hospital.

"We're veterans and they're veterans," one XGI said. "They needed some cheering up."

The XGIs spent about 3 hours socializing with lonely men, there for 90 days of drying out in the wing for alcoholics and drug addicts. Two people brought guitars; the others played checkers and pool.

"We enjoyed it," the XGI said. "It was worthwhile."

"I'LL GIVE THEM THE SAME EXAM AS LAST TERM, BUT I'LL CHANGE THE ANSWERS!"