Blood Drive

The XGI's are sponsoring a blood drive Thursday, April 21, on Campus.

A Blood Drive Mobile will be parked in front of the main Building from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. The blood drive is open to anyone wishing to participate, as long as they meet the physical requirements.

The Bloodmobile is made available by the Central Pennsylvania Blood Bank. There will be a school nurse on duty along with Bloodmobile personnel.

Students, staff, faculty, and their families may benefit from this program by receiving free blood when it is needed.

TASK

Notice- To all Juniors who took the Stanford TASK test, Fall Term, 1976:

The Stanford TASK test of Reading, English and Math skills was administered to Juniors at the beginning of the Fall Term, 1976. The test results are being analyzed as part of the Committee on Remediation's study of the need for a remediation program at The Capitol Campus. Individual test scores have been kept and will remain confidential.

Having obtained the Faculty Council's approval, the Committee will inform interested students of their scores. Students who obtain their scores will be asked if they desire remedial help. The number of students who desire such help will be reported to the Faculty Council.

Scores may be obtained itself would not apply to Capitol Campus or, for that matter, to state government. The full legal argument for freedom of the campus press requires citation of both the 1st and 14th amendments. It also requires mention of the fact that Capitol is part of a state-related institution receiving support from public funds. The Student Government Association, and only that organization, is the proper supervisory authority for the Reader. As such, complaints or demands for sanctions should be addressed to Mr. Kane or to SGA officers, not to Dr. McDermott, Dr. South, or Ms. McLeod, and certainly not to me.

Photo Contest

Past, Present and Future is the theme for a national photography contest announced this week by TIME Magazine Publisher Ralph P. Davidson.

A grand prize of $1,000 will be awarded for the best photograph of nature, people, places, events or objects by an amateur photographer, in color or black and white. Second prize is $500 and third prize winners will receive $250 each. Honorable mentions will receive the Life Library Of Photography.

Prize-winning photographs will be selected by a panel of judges consisting of world-renown photographer Alfred Eisenstaedt, former White House photographer David Kennerly and Lee Jones, editor of Magnum Photos. The winning photographs will be published in a special advertising section on photography entitled "Photography: The Universal Language" in Time's November 28, 1977 issue.

Details of the photography contest will be announced in the April 4 issue of Time. Deadline for entries is September 1, 1977.

For contest information or entry forms, write to: Marilyn Maccio, Time Magazine, Time & Life Building, Rockefeller Center, New York, New York 10020.
