

CAPITOL CAMPUS READER

Vol. 7 No. 2      Capitol Campus      Penn State University      October 3, 1977

Kent State--Not To Be Forgotten

By Jim Bresky

Monday, May 4, 1970--Four students brought against the protestors and they were shot to death on the campus of Kent were told to leave. The group, however, State University during a protest against weighing the consequences decided to Nixon's invasion of Cambodia. Two of the resist the order and remain in an effort to dead student were not even involved in prove to Americans everywhere that this the actual protest. ground is sacred and must be preserved!

The parents of the slain students      Campus police began to remove the have gone to court twice since the in- protestors by carrying them off to arrest. cident, in an effort to bring out the The protestors did not acquiese and were TRUTH about the killings. However, the arrested. The struggle still continues court ruled in favor of the executioners. both in the court room and on the cam- The parents of the slain have not given up pus.

and are presently involved in another      The May Fourth Coalition has appeal. requested a "mail in" protest by students and other concerned people in an effort to forgotten the deaths of their fellow strength the struggle there. Letters to the classmates. Each year on May 4th, the Department of the Interior, Washington, May Fourth Coalition conducts a three D. C. 20515 and to the President, Kent State University, Kent, Ohio 44242 are various speakers, films an all night vigil urgently requested. You may not realize at the Memorial and finally a Memorial the potential pressure that letters such as Service conducted at the site. this will have on the preservation of the

To prove how clumsy he is, Don Shoemaker trips over his own feet

ATOMIC SCIENTISTS