

see story on page four

photo by bob foster

News Briefs

Counseling Center Activities Center

The Counseling Center is pleased to announce that Ms. Karen Meck, a post-master's level graduate intern from the Department of Counselor Education at Millersville State College, will be available as a Counselor in the Counseling Center to meet with students, faculty and staff. Ms. Meck will be working 20 hours a week throughout the winter and spring terms and will be available Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons as well as Wednesday and Thursday evenings from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.

As of January 8, 1979, the Capitol Campus Child Development Center will be open to care for 3 - 5 year old children of Penn State students from 7:45 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. Call 787-7782 or 787-7983 for information.

Ms. Sara MacDonald, the Pennsylvania Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor for the Capitol Campus, will have new and expanded hours in the Counseling Center. Her new hours will be from 9: a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Tuesdays.

GPP concert

On Friday, January 12, Good People Productions held a rally for the spring concert in VENDORVILLE. Jack Rivers provided the entertainment for Capitol Campus students. Mr. Rivers is from New York and in late February is due to go on tour with Jackson Browne. He has gone on tour with Jackson Browne before and has also gone on tour with such groups as Electric Light Orchestra and the Beach Boys. Mr. Rivers currently has a single out called "You're My Hiding Place" and has just recorded an album which will be released shortly.

GPP will hold a meeting Monday January 29 at 3:00 in the Gallery Lounge. All People interested in working at the concert are asked to attend.

BSU Plans Ahead

The month of February has been designated "Black History Month" by the Black Student Union during its meeting Jan. 17.

Two activities are planned: a disco-dance kegger to be held on Jan. 30 and a trip to Philadelphia on Feb. 10.

The kegger is to have a theme connected with "Black History Month." Posters advertising the kegger have been put up around campus.

The trip to Philly will include a visit to the Black History Museum and maybe a stop-over at the Mother Bethel Church.

The Black Student Union will meet every Wed. at 1 p.m. at the Student Center.

Peace Corps

Jim Dupes, a Middletown native who spent two years in the Peace Corps in Malaysia, is taking a course at Capitol this term.

Dupes is ready, willing and able to talk to individuals about Peace Corps possibilities.

If interested, call the Placement Office at 787-7985 or 787-7777 and ask to make an appointment with Dupes. He will then get in touch with you and set up a time to meet with you.

Gift Awarded

Paul K. Francis, an undergraduate in the Water Resources Engineering Technology program on campus was the recipient of the Mr. Charles P. Hary Memorial Scholarship presented at the campus commencement ceremonies held in Dec.

A gift of the Capitol Campus Faculty Women's Club, this scholarship was given in memory of the late Mr. Charles P. Hary, assistant professor of engineering at Capitol.

Mr. Francis was selected to be the award recipient by the Capitol Campus Committee on Academic and Athletic Standards, Awards and Scholarships.

Francis, has maintained a perfect 4.0 grade point average in his course work at Capitol, thus demonstrating the high level of academic achievement required of the memorial scholarship winner

photo by bob foster

Captain Mike Knill takes his warm-ups while Jeff Hartman and teammates look on.

Strong Comeback For Bowlers

by mike cociardi

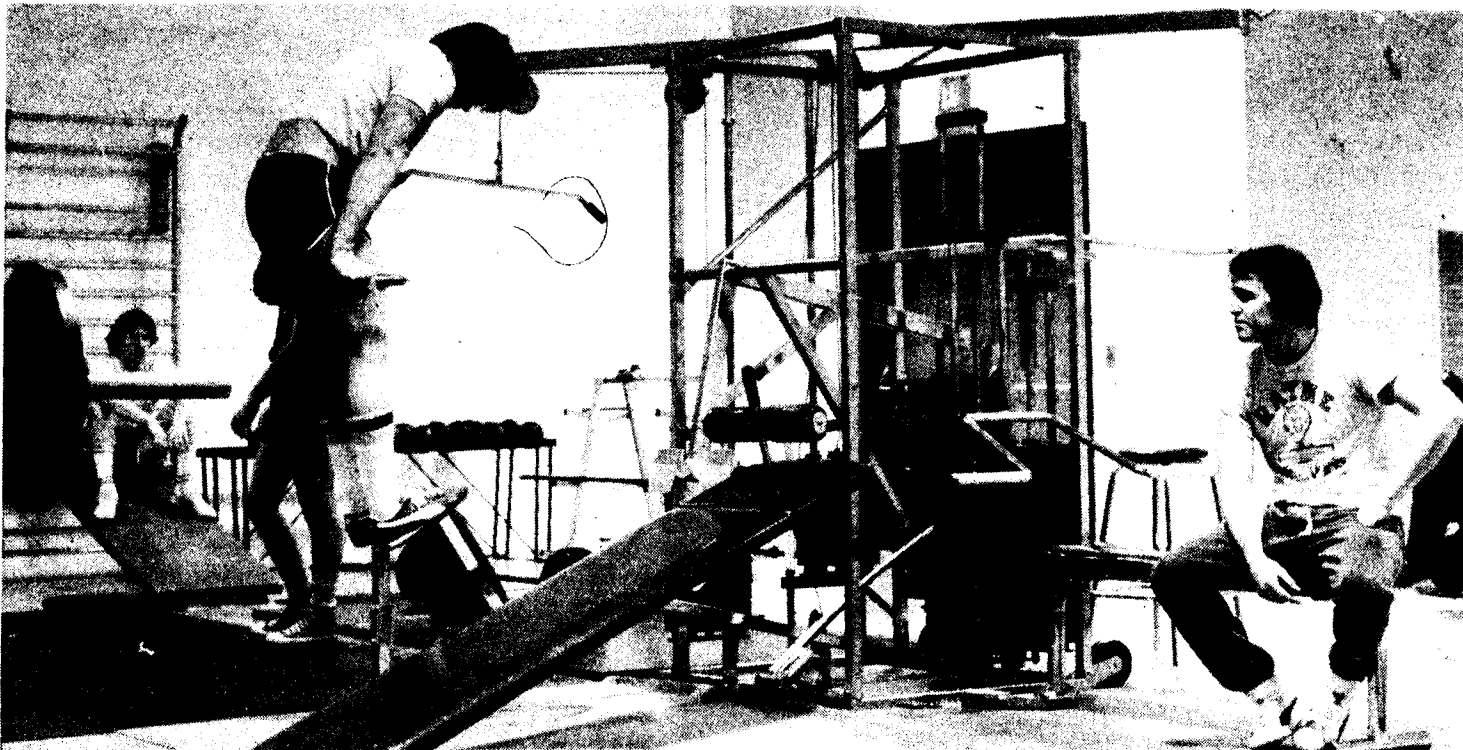

The Capitol Campus Bowling team came back from term break and opened the new year with a 25 - 0 drubbing of Drexel College this past Saturday at Middletown Lanes. The win upped the Pinman's record to 3 - 3 overall, and moved them into 3rd place in the nine team Eastern Pennsylvania Maryland Intercollegiate Conference.

Pete Stefaniak is the squads high average man with a 190 average in the league, and 186 in tournament play. Captain, Mike Knill follows Stefaniak with a 181 average in league games, and 184 in tournament action. Rounding out the squad are Bruce Rambacher, Jeff Hartman, Mike Henry, and Jack Dean.

The bowlers will face Bloomsburg State College on Sat., Jan. 27 at 1:00 at the Middletown Lanes in the Midwest.

The team figures to hold their own, however, against such stiff competition. The Pinmen have already rolled against P.S.U. Main Campus, which is the 4th highest rated team in the nation. Although they led going into the last frame, they were unable to hold on, as Main Campus rallied for a 16 - 9 decision. The match against Bloomsburg State is free, and anyone is welcome to come and watch.

related article page twelve

photo by bob foster

