

Perspectives

SGA News

The third business meeting of the Winter term took place on Tuesday 1/23. Income for the week was $275 from vending and $16 in parking fines.

All clubs should be aware that the Finance Committee has now issued new procedures to be followed for requesting money. For details check your mailboxes. Also, there will be a President's Council Meeting on Monday January 29 at 4:30 p.m. in the Gallery Lounge, so be sure there is a representative from your club.

The Stanley Turrentine Concert is on. GPP still needs a few students to help. If you work you get into the concert for free. If you're interested drop a note in GPP's mailbox.

Kim Benner was appointed Junior Senator-at-large. Welcome aboard kim! There are other Senatorial seats still opened. Let us know if you would like to get involved.

If you were upset by the mess in the parking lot on Monday, January 22, so were alot of other people. The SGA has sent a formal protest letter to the Administration. Hopefully there will be no repeat performance.

PROJECT HELPLINE is now open M-F, 6-12.

Project Helpline is a campus run referral/information line. volunteers are needed to work a few hours each week to operate the phones. Volunteers will be screened during a brief interview.

Please fill out all the required information. You will be contacted by mail/phone, as to the time and date of your interview.

Thank you for your cooperation.

- name
- local address
- phone
- academic program
- academic standing [circle] jr.
- sr. grad.

Return to 133 Church Hall or to the Counselling Center w-117.

GAME ROOM HOURS

Mon., Tues., Fri. - 6 - 12 p.m.
Wed., Sat., Sun., - 12 - 12 p.m.

On nights of major events the Multi-purpose room is opened and the hours are extended until the event ends. During this time the game room is not opened unless by special request.

just don't flush - there might still be a chance.

the opinion of an eleventh term senior

GOODBYE CRUEL WORLD..

Poetry

The symmetry of bigotry rides over the "moral" people like a wave They try to fish us out and clean us up as though they were ridding themselves of an oil slick in the ocean They are afraid we'll spread over them and contaminate their purity We don't liken ourselves to an oil slick moralist, but rather just another natural part of the world.

Carol Eveschild

WHO ARE YOU?

Susan Girolami

If I'd get any bluer, I'd probably match with the sky, All the people around me, Never seem to understand, The way I am, Or the things I do, The only one who understands me is you.

You always are there, To pat my hand, And to tell me, That it is you who understands, Never have I known anyone like you before, You, Are the person known as Friend.

WHY?

Joe Howard