Caps win one

by mike cocciardi

The Capitol varsity basketball team ended their season last week on an encouraging note finishing with a victory and a near win in their last two contests. The Caps defeated New Jersey Institute of Technology by a 61-51 margin in breaking a long ten game losing skein. The cap attack was led by Bob Cara and Tyrrell Ferrell who scored 18 and 16 points respectively.

In their season finale, the team lost a 71-70 heartbreaker to Shenandoah College. For the first time all season the Caps got a balanced scoring attack from four players in a total team effort that just came up a freethrow short. Tyrrell Ferrell canned 19 points, Kris Elish 18, Bennet Fox 14, and Bob Cara 12. Free throws were the Caps main downfall as they managed to connect on only 12 of 23 from the charity line for a bare 50 percent average.

The Caps finished the year with four wins to their credit sided by 12 defeats in a season that matched them against four year institutions exclusively. The squad will complete round-ball play for the year in a tournament to be played at Alvernia College this coming weekend.

Bowling Corner

The Capitol Campus Bowling Squad had the makings of a promising season a few weeks ago when they stood at 3-3 and were rolling well, but as of late things have taken a turn for the worse. Some key personnel injuries hurt the pinmen's progress as they have now fallen pray to a six game losing streak.

After a tie breaker loss to Temple University, the Bowlers have fallen to PSU Main Campus, 16-9, Shippensburg State College 15-10, Drexel 20-5 and 21-4, and finally again to Temple by a 14 1/2 to 10 margin. With their record at 3-9, and in fourth place in league action, the pinmen will finish the year opposing Bloomsburg State College on March 10 and coming home in the finale to take on Maryland on March 11.

Intramural bowling continued through its seventh week of competition this week and the scramble to make the five playoff spots is on. Of the ten team participating, the top five finishers will qualify for the playoffs. With two week remaining for scheduled matches this is what the standings look like: Midnight Express and Delta House at 22 - 6, Eleventh Framers 19 - 9, Low Rollers 18 - 9, Outsiders 17 - 11, Bender Brothers 14 - 14, Hat Attack 8 - 20, Rookies 6 - 22, Oozes 3 - 20, and Team 7 at 2 - 26.

The last regularly scheduled matches and upcoming playoffs will be rolled at Mid-Town Plaza Lane on Wednesday nights. For high pin averages, honors for men, Mike Knill currently leads with a 179.
