

Six mile scamper

by Barbara A. McNamara

photo by bob foster

On Sunday, April 22, Pepsi-Cola, Inc., in conjunction with Phi Beta Lambda sponsored the first competitive run through Capitol Campus.

This victory qualifies Spangler to compete in the Diet-Pepsi 10,000-Meter National AAU Road Racing Championships in Boston. The first woman to

The race was 10,000 meters (6.2 miles) with the course covering the campus roads and nearby streets. There were 237 entries and 232 finishers. Four Capitol Campus students and one psychology professor also ran.

cross the finish line was Carol Myers of East Berlin. She placed 30th overall.

Although there were eight separate age brackets for men and women, Donald Spangler of

The best shoeing from Capitol Campus was that of Dan Hilferty, finishing 61st in 42:21, followed by Robert Bofinger (43:05); Mark Servinsky (45:00) James Knestrick (48:31); and Kevin Herberle (48:31).

Lewistown was the first to cross the finish line with a time of 33 minutes and 24 seconds, capturing the overall victory.

Two people responsible for making this race a success are Lynne Werman, chairperson and race director, and Phil Geigert, course marshal and president of Phi Beta Lambda.

photo by bob foster

I.M. softball standing of the teams

American League

TEAM	WON	LOST
Redneck Mothers	4	0
Sultans of Swing	3	1
Nuclear Wastes	2	1
TMI	2	1
Gnat Men	2	2
Petards	2	2
XGI's	2	2
Cunning Lnguists	1	1
Bushwackers	1	2
Survivors	0	3
Scraps	0	4

National League

TEAM	WON	LOST	WON	LOST
Elwood's Boys	4	0	Three Strikes: You're Out	0	2
Tony's Team	3	0	Team Z	0	2
Night Train Express	3	1	2nd Floor Church	0	3
Taint	2	1	Physician's Assistanta	0	3
Dukes	2	1
Joint Effort	2	1
Gummas	1	1
WSDC Plus	0	2

