

Rate-A-Bar

By now most students should know that keggars are no longer considered legal at Capitol Campus. With this in mind, we of the Capitol Campus Bar Committee ( a self-appointed committee) have decided to provide Capitol Campus students with a Rate-A-Bar service. We are not funded by Penn State and provide this as a public service.

In order for the Bar Committee to continue this service without public harassment ( not to mention administrative harassment as well), the names of the committee members have been changed to protect the innocent. Any resemblance to anyone real or fictional is purely intentional. With this in mind, the Bar Committee members are: J. Bar, R. Bar, the D2. Bars, the double P. Bars, and the M.& M. Bars.

The criteria used for rating a bar include the following: Service, Prices, Atmosphere (which includes cleanliness), Juke Box (or live band depending on the establishment), Games, Quality of Beer on Tap, Women, Men, Food, Location, Parking, Restrooms, Quality of Drinks (this includes shots), Attitude Towards Students, Last Call, and an Overall rating.

The rating system used by the committee consists of the following: 5 stars-Outstanding; 4 stars-Excellent; 3 stars-Good; 2 stars-Piss Poor; 1 star-Shitty. And of course a comment section will be included to inform the Capitol Campus Student of such items as dress code, cover charge (if any), and whatever.

We intend to rate at least one bar per edition of the C.C.Reader. Comments from the student body are welcomed and should be addressed to the editor.

Memorial scholarship offered

A $500 scholarship will be awarded at December Commencement in memory of Dr. Richard H. Heindel. Dr. Heindel was the first Dean of Faculty at Capitol Campus and a Professor Emeritus of International Relations. He died in July 1979.

Funds for the Memorial Scholarship have been donated by the Capitol Campus Faculty Women's Club.

The recipient will be selected by the Capitol Campus Committee on Academic and Athletic Standards, Awards and Scholarships.

One-half of the award will be disbursed to the recipient during Winter Term 1980 and the second half will be for use in the Spring Term 1980. The competition is limited to individuals classified as Term 8, 9 or 10 during the Fall Term 1979.

Selection will be based upon financial need and academic achievement.

Students interested in applying must complete an application, and, if they have not already provided the university with income information, a Financial Aid Form (FAF) must be filed.

Applications and FAFs can be obtained in the Admissions Office, room 214 in the Multi-Purpose Building.

The deadline for submission of the application is Oct. 17, 1979.
