

Capitol's sports go national

The 1979-80 athletic season marks the beginning of an affiliation between the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) and PSU/Capitol Campus. according to Bud Smitley, Coordinator of Recreation and Athletics, this affiliation will present a recognized athletic program at the campus and is symptomatic of campus-wide efforts to provide high level programs for students and community.

"While it is obvious that joining NAIA will aid our athletic program immensely, I feel the entire campus com-

Bowlers downed

In bowling action last Sunday, Capitol Campus pin-men were defeated by the University of Maryland at Middletown Lanes. In a close contest, Capitol won eight and lost eleven of the individual matches. Maryland took the total, 2549 - 2516.

This weekend, the team takes to the road to play Temple on Saturday and Villanova on Sunday, both in Philadelphia.

Cagers start play

The men's varsity basketball team travels to Reading this Friday evening to take on Alvernia College. The first home game will be played Monday, November 19 at 7:30 p.m. against Sheperd College. This season marks the first year that C.C. has been sanctioned by NAIA District 19. Statistics will now be officially recorded and kept by the NAIA.

Soccer wrap-up

The soccer team ended their season, November 3, on a victorious note, massacring Northeast Christian Jr. College, 8 - 2. In the previous game at PSU/Ogontz, the Caps were defeated 6 - 0. The team ended the season with a 2 - 9 record.

Many players are expected to return next season and hopefully improve on this year's record. Indoor soccer is being planned for Friday nights during the winter term. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

munity will also benefit," Smitley said. He commented that the upgraded athletic program provides new incentives for students to select Capitol as the best place to continue their academic careers. another advantage of the new affiliation according to Smitley, is that Capitol teams will have the opportunity to participate in NAIA post-season competition. "The fact that our teams will be competing against other teams on a national basis should improve the caliber of play of our various squads," he said.

Women's inter-collegiate v-ball offered

A meeting will be held tomorrow, November 16, at 3:00 p.m. in the gym for women interested in playing volleyball on the intercollegiate level. All interested parties are strongly urged to attend.

Gym hours during Thanksgiving break

The gymnasium will be closed from 5:00 p.m., Wednesday, Nov.21 until 8:00 a.m. Friday, Nov. 23. It will close

Friday night at 5:00 and open again Monday, Nov.26 for regular hours.

ID's required for Rec use

Just a reminder that ID's must be left at the Recreation Athletic Office in order to check out any equipment. ID's will be returned when the equipment is returned.

Flag Football

c.c.reader

Final standings of the teams

Team	Won	Lost
Hershey Nuclear Petards	5	1
Go-Nads	5	1
C Dogs	4	2
Kamikazes	3	3
Trojans	2	4
Burn City	1	5
Rowdors	1	5

Football Playoffs underway

The flag football playoffs got underway last Wednesday. In the three games played thus far, the Petards have defeated the Kamikazes 14-0, the Kamikazes dealt a loss to the C Dogs 13-8, and the Go-Nads edged the C Dogs 12-8. This eliminates the C Dogs from the double elimination tournament. Play will continue until a winner is crowned, hopefully before Thanksgiving break. Results of the remaining games will appear in the next issue.

Middletown Lanes 944-9991

WEDNESDAY- Campus League

Nite

Ball drilling services, Bags,

Shoes and Accessories

David Martin Store

Downtown M-town

- * SWEATSHIRTS
- * TEE SHIRTS
- * NITTANY LION SHIRTS
- * CAPS
- * MUGS
- * LICENSE PLATES

Come to the Rescue ~ Give Blood

~ Blood Drive ~
Sponsored by Chi Gamma Iota
Thursday, Nov. 15, 9-3
sign up in nurses office for appointment time