

Bulletin Board

C.C. Reader

Engineering-in-training

All classes are scheduled from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Auditorium

Applications now available for EIT Exam from Ann Kirschm 261. Sponsored by the P.S.P.E.

Class	Day & Date	Topic	Instructor
9	Thur. January 10	Strength of Materials	Professor Brey
10	Thur. January 17	Strength of Materials	Professor Brey
11	Thur. January 24	Fluid Mechanics	Professor Brey
12	Thur. January 31	Fluid Mechanics	Professor Brey
13	Thur. February 7	Engineering Economy	Professor Brey
14	Thur. February 14	Computer Science	Dr. Welsh
15	Tues. February 19	Computer Science	Dr. Welsh
16	Thur. February 28	Electrical Theory & Systems theory	Professor Bubel
17	Thur. March 6	Electrical Theory & Systems Theory	Professor Bubel
18	Thur. March 13	Electrical Theory & Systems Theory	Professor Bubel
19	Thur. April 3	Thermodynamics	Professor D. Miller
20	Tues. April 8	Thermodynamics	Professor D. Miller

Weather Info

In the event of severe weather conditions this term, students should call the Campus Relations Office, which will act as the official Weather Day Center. The number is 783-6000. The Weather Day Center will be operational from 6:30 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Local radio and television stations will be notified if and when the school is completely closed.

No Smoking

Attention Smokers: Please observe the No Smoking signs in the west side and vending machine areas of Vendorville. Smoking is permitted in the east side.

B.S.U. Event

The Black Student Union will be holding a program in honor of the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. The program will be held on January 15, 1980 in the Gallery Lounge at 8:00 pm. The speaker will be Rev. Baxter from Harrisburg, who has recorded several albums. There will also be a film shown, "Martin Luther King: From Montgomery to Memphis" and refreshments will be served. We strongly urge students, faculty, and staff members to attend this program. Admission is free.

President's council presents

Love At First Bite

in the auditorium

showtimes:

Monday, January 14 - noon, 3 pm, 6 pm., 8 pm., 10 pm.

Cost: a $1.25 donation

Bring a friend!

Love at First Bite

International News Commentary

by Qasim Ali Hamdani

The Iran Stalemate

The present crisis in Iran has left this world shocked and bewildered. Efforts made by the U.S. and the international community at the U.N. are not bearing any fruit; and to the exasperation of the U.S. government, everything is in a stalemate.

The recent visit to Iran by U.N. Secretary General Kurt Waldheim was a failure where the release of hostages is concerned.

But it left a certain image on the impartial diplomat's mind which he described by saying: "Things will get worse before they get better."

Economic sanctions against Iran are expected to be approved by the Security Council. It is also believed approved by the Council that - if sanctions are approved - Iran will recede to partial isolation by cutting all communications with the West.

The visit of the clergymen to Iran and their meetings with the hostages was very consoling to the hostages' families.

Ayatollah Khomeini is believed to have gone into oblivion; he is unable to cope with the challenges his nation is facing.

Russian Invasion of Afghanistan

Amidst the crisis in Iran, another big development across Iran's borders baffled the world. It was the Russian invasion of Afghanistan.

A Russian-sponsored coup replaced the government of President Hafizullah Amin with Russia's main man, Babrak Karmal. The former president was later executed.

The invasion is being criticized all over the world. President Carter responded to the Russian action by stopping all grain export to Russia. The President also decided to terminate sales of high-technology equipment to Russia. Internationally, the President promised more military aid to Pakistan; and it is believed that the fighting Moslem tribesmen will be

Cease-fire in Rhodesia

Initiation of British government has brought cease-fire in Rhodesia. Rhodesia's British Governor, Lord Soames, held discussions with the fighting guerrillas and an accord was reached. The cease-fire guarantees all possible help to the returning guerrillas. That includes three meals a day and lots of beer.

Boat People Still Suffering

Boat people are still pouring into Thailand. Their recent suffering was increased by the addition of machine gun fire from both sides. People are being killed while trapped in the cross-fire between the Thai and Cambodian armies.

Due to widespread criticism of the Pol Pot regime, the government of Cambodia appointed Khieu Samphan as the new Prime Minister. The international community was not appeased, however - Pol Pot still remains as commander of the guerrilla army.

ENERGY. We can't afford to waste it.