

ATTENTION ALL SCRIVENERS!
POETS!
COMMERCIAL HACKS! and other Literary Geniuses and Doodlers!

TARNHELM wants the sweat of your brow (high or low).

TARNHELM the literary magazine of the Capitol Campus (or whatever it's called), needs submissions from the students, faculty, and staff of this, our fair nurturing mother.

We want POEMS, SHORT STORIES, and other literary productions of artistic merit.

In addition, black-and-white PHOTOGRAPHS and GRAPHICS are sought.

Subject matter and treatment are unlimited.

This is the opportunity you've been waiting for.

TARNHELM is published in the Spring Term with a grant from the Student Government Association.

It is your literary magazine. Please contribute.

Here's how to submit:

All manuscripts should be typed double-spaced;
be sure to include your name, address, and telephone number with each submission;

Manuscripts can be put in the mail box in the SGA office, Room W 110.

Photos and graphics, as well as manuscripts, can be placed in the blue metal box marked

"TARNHELM" in the Humanities Program office, Room W 360, or given to one of the secretaries.

Reasonable care of all submissions will be taken,
but we cannot be held responsible for losses.

Please make sure that you have printed your name, address, and telephone number on the back of all photos and graphics so that we can arrange to return them to you.
