In the interest of justice, the election-screening committee requested that these people run on the write-in ticket. They will still have the opportunity to run for the office of their choice and will be permitted to post fifteen 2 x 3 foot campaign signs in campus buildings.

Jonathan E. Hostler

Committee

CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT
Leonard Wumke

Good day to all of you. My name is Leonard Wumke and I am staging a write-in campaign for SGA President. I was unable to get my name on the ballot due to extenuating circumstances so I must depend on students taking the initiative to write my name on the ballot.

Now let me get right to the point. If you don't really feel like voting in this election and you don't really care about SGA, then don't vote! Don't let any of the other candidates talk you into doing something you care nothing about. But if you really want to vote, I hope you will consider writing my name down.

My main objective as President would be to keep the name of Capitol Campus the same and to keep the size the same. A redneck stance, to be sure, but one I know a lot of you support deep down.

One of my secondary objectives is to improve the food service on campus. I would start by extending breakfast time in the dining hall to 9:30 a.m. and lunch to 2 p.m. After all, food service is supposed to serve the student, not just meet some manager's budget.

My last big objective is to get the walkway from the dorms to the main building into reasonably good condition. This walkway has been "under construction" more than fifty per cent of the time I have lived here and I'm getting tired of walking on the ankle stones.

Well, those are my main goals, but I make no promises. Much depends on the administration's willingness to work with students. Thank-you for taking the time to read this.

CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT

Jay Redman

I'm running for SGA President because I feel I can perform the duties of president and lead the SGA for the benefit of ALL students of Capitol Campus.

I have been involved with many student organizations this year. I am the chairman of GPP, a member of MHBOG, and initiated the film series for Presidents Council. I have attended many SGA meetings this year and have become familiar with the SGA's duties, policies, and responsibilities.

I would like to see the SGA become a stronger unit within itself and open its doors to student opinion and work WITH the students.

Many students feel the SGA is a circus and they may be correct. To make personal accusations would be fruitless. What Capitol Campus needs is good leaders who will work hard FOR the students.

We need to see more activities available to students. We need to see a fair distribution of club funds so that clubs have more money to work with.

We need to see a strong and stable competitor to the bookstore. We need a Dean's List for the students. We need a better organization with class registration each semester. The list is endless. We need a strong, open-minded, hard working, dedicated president. I know I can do the job and do it well. Write in Jay Redman for SGA President. It's time for a change.

CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT

Joe Horvath

Greetings. Are you tired of hearing politicians make promises that they will never be able to keep?

I'm Joe Horvath, and I'm sick of hearing them too. I'm running on a straight-talk, write-in ballot. Why should I make promises now and find out later that, due to extreme circumstances, I can't carry them out? I am no liar, and that would surely be letting you down. Thus, I am not promising you any particular thing—except that I will do the best job I possibly can given the circumstances at this college. When I get in, I'll take a look around and then tell you EXACTLY what I can do for you.

Write me in on your ballot on Monday the 28th. Vote for a man who knows what reality is and who won't let you down.

CANDIDATE FOR VICE-PRESIDENT

Dave Austin

My name is David Austin (Senator) and I want you to vote for me for vice president of the SGA. If elected to that office, I promise the following:

1. To encourage more activities from the chartered organizations of Capitol Campus since, if elected, I would be chairman of the Presidents Council.

2. To strictly adhere to the SGA Constitution so that the power of the SGA does not rest solely with the executive officers but is distributed equally between the executive board and the senators.

3. To be available to you, my constituents, at any time to answer any questions, listen to your problems, and act on any suggestions you may have.

4. To work closely with both faculty and administration to achieve the goals set by the SGA and the Presidents Council.

5. To be able to step in if, for any reason, the president you elect is unable to fulfill his/her duties.

I am presently a senator of SGA, a representative in RSC, a GPP member and a student representative to the faculty council. I am qualified for the job of SGA vice president, and ask you to vote for me, David Austin, for that office. (WRITE IN)
