Volume 12, No. 1

Middletown, PA. 17057

15 September 1980

William Busher, Vice-President of Chi Gamma Iota Fraternity, shows the fraternity's problems, good parts, and goals for the upcoming year.

Last week the Resident Assistants were very busy with their training program. Here, Andrea Schrage, Theresa Mulac, Kenneth Aducci, and Warren Jones discuss leadership principles over lunch.

Vehicle Registration Changes Made

A schedule of pro rata vehicle registration fees and a list of non-moving violations and fines are changes in the Capitol Campus Vehicle Regulations effective September 1, 1980.

The fee for full-time students registering a car for the full ten weeks of the term is $10.00. The pro rata charges are 100% of the fee for the first and second weeks of the term, 80% of the fee for the third week of the term, 70% of the fee for the fourth week of the term, 60% of the fee for the fifth week of the term, and 50% of the fee for the sixth through tenth weeks of the term. Part-time students who register a car for the full term will be charged $5.00. The charge for part-time students who register a car for less than ten weeks or full term attendance is $2.00 per day per week.

Non-moving violations not dealing with restricted registrations have been listed and assigned specific fines. The violations and fines are:

- parking in a wrong area -- $3.00
- parking in a no-parking area -- $5.00
- parking in a reserved or restricted area -- $5.00
- parking in a loading zone -- $5.00
- parking in front of yellow curb, on roadway, or on grass -- $7.00
- parking outside line (using two spaces) -- $5.00
- parking overtime -- $3.00
- blocking parked car, driveway, or access road -- $5.00
- failure to register a vehicle (no permit or sticker) -- $15.00
- permit improperly displayed -- $2.00
- current permit not displayed -- $3.00
- failure to report change of address or license number -- $5.00
- driving on walkway -- $7.00
- failure to respond to violation notice -- $1.00.

New Year Starts at Capitol

The 1980-81 year at Capitol begins September 17 with 1600 full-time and 900 part-time students enrolled. In addition to new students and new faculty members, several other changes have occurred and new people have joined the staff.

The most obvious change is the beginning of the renovation of Vendorville. The pinball machines are now located in a game room. This room is closed off from the food service area, the large room where the pinball machines were formerly located, and the new room where the Servomation machines are now located. A fundraising drive will soon be underway to complete the Vendorville renovation, as well as provide a new sign and landscaping for the entrance to the campus.

New staff members at Capitol include Kathy Branigan, Coordinator of Student Activities, Roger Williams, Director of Campus Relations, John Pellicchia, Assistant Coordinator, Residence Living Program, and Daun Kauffman, photographer/darkroom technician in Instructional Services.

Last spring the C.C. Reader reported the planned consolidation of academic divisions. Dr. Harold Gilmore is now head of the Business Program, which includes the Master of Administration Program. Social Science and Education have become the division of Behavioral Sciences and Education under Dr. Stanley Miller. Dr. William Welsh heads the Science, Engineering, and Technology Division. The Public Affairs Program is headed by Dr. Christopher McKenna, and Dr. Robert Graham and Mr. Charles Townley remain the heads of the Humanities Program and the Heindel Library, respectively.

It's  time

Dr. Kathryn Towns has been appointed the new Associate Dean For Research, Graduate Studies, and Continuing Education subject to the appointment appearing as an information item on the docket of the University Board of Trustees' meeting in September.

Students coming to Capitol Campus and returning will discover increased parking fines this year. Another change is the placement of the substitute vehicle book in the lobby instead of the Round Table.
