President's Message

Greetings,

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome all the new students to Capitol Campus and also welcome back all the seniors who are returning for yet another year of the Capitol Campus experience. I hope your summers went well and you're ready for a year of fun as well as classes. With your support and help, the Student Government Association and the various clubs can make this a very productive and worthwhile year.

The student leaders of Capitol attended a leadership conference a week ago and some good ideas were discussed for campus events and fundraising for the coming year. But student involvement will be needed in implementing these ideas. So let's make them work. Contact clubs and get involved.

Also at the conference was a discussion of faculty organizations. The faculty, as well as the students, believe that student participation on these committees is essential to have an effective group. I think that the more input we give, the more satisfied we'll be with what these groups do. Somewhere in this issue of the C.C. Reader you will find a listing of the faculty organization committees. If these interest you, contact me through my W-110 mailbox.

One more thing before I sign off. Any of you who have any ideas for activities, don't be afraid to speak up. If it's feasible, with student help, we'll give it a try.

Good luck in the coming year.
