STUDENT HITS THE BOOKS WITH A TRIPLE PUNCH

ARCATA, Calif. (CH) -- A 22-year-old undergraduate became Humboldt State University's version of a Renaissance man when he set a record by earning three degrees in three different fields at the same time.

Jeffrey Bozanic of Huntington Beach doubled his study load by taking 30 units each quarter. He received a bachelor's degree in geology and two master's degrees -- one in natural resources and one in education.

University officials believe Bozanic is the first student to accomplish such a feat in the history of higher education.

For his academic overload, Bozanic received "Man of the Year" award from Humboldt State President Alistair W. McCrone.

Bozanic is not only a scholar, but also a rock climber, backpacker, stamp collector and a wildlife artist. He obviously enjoys school -- he will attend the UCLA School of Law this fall.

If you don't like thinking about safety, think where you might be without it.
